

Index

A

- Acquirer-supplier development, 58–60
- Activities, in RUP adoption. See also
 - implementing RUP; planning the adoption.
 - after implementation, 13–17
 - before implementation, 4–8
 - examples, 119
 - flowchart, 3
 - during implementation, 8–13
- Activities, in RUP processes
 - adding to your RUP process, 157, 170–171
 - changing, 159–160
 - selecting for your RUP process, 148–149
- Actors, 33
- Adaptation. See
- Adopters of RUP. See people, in the organization.
- Adopting RUP, organizational level
 - See also* disciplines
 - See also* documenting your RUP process
 - See also* examples, of RUP implementations
 - See also* implementing RUP
 - See also* monitoring process implementation
 - See also* processes (RUP)
 - activities. See activities, in RUP adoption; planning the adoption.
 - completion criteria, 14–16
 - documenting your decisions, 11–12
 - feedback, 117
 - goals, 6–7, 12–13, 90–92
 - selecting a RUP subset, 115
- Adopting RUP, project level
 - assessing your project, 129–132
 - concrete support, 136
 - current processes, 131
 - documenting process support, 134–135
 - documenting processes, 133, 136–139
 - documenting the assessment, 131–132
 - post-project activities, 140
 - proactive support, 135
 - process support, 134–135
 - project characteristics, 131
 - reactive support, 136
 - selecting a RUP subset, 132–139
 - sharing the experience, 139–140
- Advanced beginner skill level, 188–189
- Analysis and Design discipline, 24, 25
- Application development projects. See projects.
- Architectural gurus, personality type, 200
- Architecture, 32, 39. See also models.
- Architecture-centric processes, 32, 39
- Artifact hysteria, 181
- Artifacts. See also entries for specific artifacts.
 - adding to your RUP process, 147–148, 157, 170–171

- Artifacts. continued
as milestone criteria, 27
reviews, 124
- Assessing
business case goals, 82–85
implementation, 13, 86
projects, 58–60, 129–132
- Assessing your organization comparing to other organizations, 55 compiling the results, 66–67 current situation, 5, 61–64 drawing conclusions, 66
final report, 67–68
formulating recommendations, 66–67
identifying problems, 66 identifying stakeholders, 50–51
interviews, 53–55
kickoff meeting, 51–53
organizational structure, 57–58 people, 56–57 presenting the findings, 69 products, 58–60
reading process documentation, 55 tool support, 60–61
- Awareness of RUP, 4–5
- B
- Balanced IT Scorecard, 84
- Best practices, 149–150
- Business cases
creating, 72–73
creating measurable goals, 82–85 example, 75–77
motivation to accept RUP, 6 people-related items, 77–78 process-related items, 75–77 purpose of, 6
- Business Modeling discipline, 24, 25
- Business units, 57
- C
- Change, resistance to. See motivation; resistance to change.
- Checklists, 174–175
- Choosing a process. See processes (RUP), selecting.
- CMM (Capability Maturity Model), 84–85
- COCOMO II, 75–76
- Coach, 207, 209, 125. See also mentors.
- Coaching. See mentoring.
- Code lovers, personality type, 201
- Common language, 30–33
- Communication channels, 102–103, 105
- Communication plans
developing, 102–104
executing, 120–121
overview, 7
- Comparing organizations, 55
- Competent person skill level, 189
- Completion criteria
adoption, 14–16
Construction phase, 32
Elaboration phase, 32
implementing RUP, 14–16
Inception phase, 32
milestones, 27
phase completion, 27
phases of RUP, 27
Transition phase, 32
- Concrete support, 136
- Configuration & Change Management discipline, 24, 25
- Configuring RUP, 29–30, 116–117. See also processes (RUP), selecting.
- Configuring selected components, 152–153
- Confusion room, 80–81
- Construction phase
completion criteria, 32
duration, 27
iterations, 27
milestones, 27
premature start, 45–46
- Consultants, 89
- Contentment room, 79
- Cost of RUP adoption, 75–77
- Covansys Corporation, sample RUP
implementation, 212–219
- Critical success factors, 98
- Customizing RUP, 29–30, 116–117. See also
processes (RUP), selecting.
- Customizing RUP components, 170–171

D

Deliverables. See artifacts.

Delivering software to users. See Deployment discipline.

Denial room, 79–80, 81

Deployment discipline, 24, 25

Design deficiencies, 63

Development case, documenting, 172–173

Development processes. See software development processes.

Development teams. See teams.

Disciplines. See also processes (RUP).
 adding to your RUP process, 157
 chart, 24
 customizing, 170–171
 selecting for your RUP process, 146–147
 structure, 25–26

Distributing software to users. See Deployment discipline.

Documentation. See also plans.
 during organizational assessment, 55 organizational assessment report, 67–68 out-of-sync with product, 63–64 process selection decisions, 11–12
 process support, 134–135
 processes, 133, 136–139
 project assessment, 131–132 risk and opportunity list, 92–93
 RUP process decisions, 11–12

Documenting your RUP process
 checklists, 174–175
 customizing RUP components, 170–171 development case, 172–173 development process, 172 in a document, 167
 examples, 175
 guidelines, 174–175
 hiding excluded parts of the process, 168–169
 HTML editors, 167–168
 iteration plans, 171–174
 linking to RUP process model, 169–170
 MyRUP, 169
 process views, description, 175–176 process views, organizational, 168–169 process views, personal, 169

 roadmaps, 175–176
 role of the mentor, 180–182
 RUP Builder, 168–169
 RUP Modeler, 170–171
 RUP Organizer, 169–170
 Stage 0: Before adoption, 177
 Stage 1: Pilot projects, 177–178
 Stage 2: First draft, 178–179
 Stage 3: Follow-on projects, 180
 templates, 175
 on a Web page, 167–169
 word processors, 167

Dreyfus, Hubert L., 187–190

Drivers, 86

E

Elaboration phase
 completion criteria, 32
 duration, 27
 iterations, 27
 milestones, 27

E-mail newsletter, communication channel, 102–103, 122

Environment discipline, 24, 25

Evaluating. See assessing.

Examples
 adding to your RUP process, 157
 documenting, 175

Examples, of RUP implementations
See also adopting RUP
See also documenting your RUP process
See also monitoring process implementation
See also processes (RUP)
 Covansys Corporation, 212–219
 Volvo Information Technology, 205–212

Exit criteria. See completion criteria.

Expert skill level, 190

External consultants, 89

External mentor, 114, 125–126

F

Feedback, RUP adoption, 117

First RUP project. See pilot projects.

Flowchart, activities in RUP adoption, 3

Four Rooms of Change, 78–82
Function organizations, 57

G

Goals

adoption, 6–7, 12–13, 90–92
business cases, 82–85 long-term, 90–92
process implementation, 86 short-term, 90–92

Guidelines, 157, 174–175

H

Harvest experiences, 116, 138–139, 168–182
Hackers, personality type, 201
Help. See mentors.
Hiding excluded processes, 168–169
High-level adoption plans, 7
HTML editors, 167–168

I

IBM Rational Software, 23–24
IBM Rational Unified Process (RUP). See RUP (Rational Unified Process).
Implementation discipline, 24, 25
Implementation plans, 8–9
Implementation teams, 89, 114
Implementing RUP
See also adopting RUP
See also disciplines
See also documenting your RUP process
See also examples, of RUP implementations
See also monitoring process
implementation
See also processes (RUP)
activities. See activities, in RUP adoption.
assessing the implementation, 13
completion criteria, 14–16
Inception phase
completion criteria, 32
duration, 27
iterations, 27
milestones, 27
Incremental development, 37. See also iterative process.
Individuals in RUP model. See actors; roles;
stakeholders.

Information meeting, communication channel, 102–103, 120
Inputs to RUP. See artifacts.
Installing RUP. See adopting; implementing.
Internal mentor, 114, 125–126
Interviews, 53–55, 117
Intranet, communication channel, 102–103
ISO/IEC 15504. See SPICE.
Iteration plans, 137–138, 171–174
Iterations
Construction phase, 27
controlling, 31–32
definition, 31
Elaboration phase, 27
Inception phase, 27
per phase, 27
phases of RUP, 27
time boxing, 32
Transition phase, 27
Iterative process, 36–38

J

Janssen, Claes, 78
Jargon, 30–33
Just-in-time planning, 43
Justifying adoption of RUP. See business cases; motivation.

K

Kickoff meeting, 51–53
Knowledge
by acquaintance, 191–192
categories, 190–192
creation, 186–190
possession of skills, 191
propositional, 191
transfer, 184–186
Knowledge base, 28–30

L

Lag indicators, 86
Lead indicators, 86
Learning curve, RUP adoption, 73–74
Lifecycles, customizing, 160–162, 170–171
Linking documentation to RUP process model, 169–170
Longtime employees, personality type, 200

M

Maintenance, 16–17, 46

Matrix organizations, 57

Measuring. See assessing.

Mentoring, 114, 123, 125–126, 183–203.

Mentors

advanced beginner skill level, 188–189

competent person skill level, 189

expert skill level, 190

goals of, 184

novice skill level, 188

over-involvement, 202–203

phasing out, 202–203

possession of skills, 191

in documenting your RUP process, 180–182

in process selection, 162–163

proficient performer skill level, 189

propositional knowledge, 191

role of, 9–10

skill levels, 187–190

training, 125–126

Mentors, duties of

avoid criticism, 194–195

conduct workshops, 197

keep the project moving, 198–199

know your limits, 197

know your RUP, 197

maintain a positive attitude, 198

mentor by doing, 196

offer encouragement, 194

sample qualifications, 198

show a presence, 193–194

tolerate mistakes, 199

Mentors, knowledge requirements

by acquaintance, 191–192

categories, 190–192

creation, 186–190

transfer, 184–186

Mentorship. See mentoring.

Milestones

Construction phase, 27

Elaboration phase, 27

Inception phase, 27

phase completion criteria, 27

phases of RUP, 27

reviews, 124

time boxing, 156

Transition phase, 27

Mistakes during adoption. See traps.

Model driven processes, 39–41

Models, 33. See also architecture.

Monitoring process implementation

See also adopting RUP

See also documenting your RUP process

See also implementing RUP

See also processes (RUP)

Balanced IT Scorecard, 84

CMM (Capability Maturity Model), 84–85

drivers, 86

elements of, 84

goals, example, 86

lag indicators, 86

lead indicators, 86

measurements, example, 86

SPICE (Software Process Improvement and Capability dEtermination), 85

Motivation to accept RUP. See also organizational support; resistance.

cost estimation, 75

investment vs. improvement, 75–77

learning curve, 73–74

productivity, 73–75

reactions to change, 78–82

Multiple-domain strategy, 110–111

MyRUP, 169

N

Narrow and deep, strategy, 105, 107–108

No-urgency strategy, 106

Normal-approach strategy, 95, 96. See also single-domain strategy.

Novice skill level, 188

O

Opportunities, 6–7, 92–93. See also risks.

Order process, 19–22

Organization's adaptation, See Organizational process.

Organizational process, 116, 141–144. See also Documenting your RUP process

Organizational structure, assessing, 57–58

Organizational support. See also motivation to accept RUP.

artifact reviews, 124

- Organizational support. continued
 - configuring RUP, 116–117
 - documenting the project implementation plan, 118–119
 - executing a communication plan, 120–121
 - implementation team, 114
 - mentoring, 125–126
 - milestone reviews, 124
 - selecting a RUP subset, 115
 - separate implementation projects, 114
 - training sessions, 121–123
 - updating the project implementation plan, 120
 - workshops, 123
- Out-of-sync product and documentation, 63–64
- Output from RUP. See artifacts.
- Ownership
 - adoption plans, 101–102
 - development projects, 114
 - processes, 89
- P
- People, in RUP model
 - actors, 33
 - roles, 157, 170–171
 - stakeholders, 50–51
- People, in the organization. See also
 - personality types.
 - assessing, 56–57
 - in business cases, 77–78
 - interviewing, 53–55
 - typical personalities, 199–202
- Personality types
 - architectural gurus, 200
 - code lovers (hackers), 201
 - longtime employees, 200
 - process lovers (enthusiasts), 201–202
 - testers, 201
- Phases of RUP
 - See also* Construction phase
 - See also* Elaboration phase
 - See also* Inception phase
 - See also* Transition phase
 - chart of, 24
 - completion criteria, 27
 - customizing, 170–171
 - duration, 27
 - iterations, 27
 - milestones, 27
 - time boxing, 156
- Pilot projects, 7–8, 177–178
- Planning the adoption. See also activities, in
 - RUP adoption; implementing RUP.
 - breadth vs. depth, 105–108
 - choosing a strategy, 105–112
 - excessive detail, 7, 43–44, 181
 - identifying projects, 104–105
 - implementation team, 89
 - just-in-time, 43
 - long-term goals, 90–92
 - multiple-domain strategy, 110–111
 - narrow and deep, 105, 107–108
 - opportunity identification, 92–93
 - pacing the adoption, 108–111
 - risk identification, 92–93
 - setting goals, 90–92
 - short-term goals, 90–92
 - single-domain strategy, 109–110
 - time requirements, 111–112
 - urgency, 106–108
 - wide and shallow, 105–106
- Plans. See also documentation.
 - adoption. See implementation.
 - implementation, 8–9, 118–119
 - iteration, example, 137–138
- Plans, communication
 - developing, 102–104
 - executing, 120–121
 - overview, 7
- Plans, high-level adoption (implementation)
 - critical success factors, 98
 - documenting a formal plan, 98–99
 - excessive detail, 94
 - organizational level vs. project level, 100–101
 - overview, 7
 - ownership, 101–102
 - required content, 96
 - scope, 94–98
- Plug-ins, 150, 152, 170–171
- Poor-quality products, 63
- Possession of skills, 191
- PPS project management method, 225–227
- Practitioners of RUP. See people, in the organization.
- Principles of RUP projects, 41
- Proactive support, 135

- Problem analysis, skipping, 44
 - Problems
 - during adoption. See traps.
 - identifying. See assessing.
 - Process and Tool Support Center, 16–17
 - Process lovers (enthusiasts), personality type, 201–202
 - Process views
 - description, 175–176
 - organizational, 168–169
 - personal, 169
 - Processes (business)
 - order process, 19–22
 - software engineering, 19–22
 - Process (RUP)
 - See also* adopting RUP
 - See also* disciplines
 - See also* documenting your RUP process
 - See also* implementing RUP
 - See also* monitoring process implementation
 - activities, 157
 - adding to, 156–158
 - adoption problems. See traps.
 - artifacts, 157
 - in business cases, 75–77
 - components, selecting, 152–153
 - disciplines, 157
 - examples, 157
 - good vs. none, 92
 - guidelines, 157
 - naming, 142–143
 - organizational support, 134–135
 - ownership, 89, 143
 - project management methods, 157–158
 - roles, 157
 - time boxing, 156
 - Process (RUP), changing. See also configuring RUP
 - activities, 159–160
 - lifecycle, 160–162
 - templates, 159–160
 - Process (RUP), selecting
 - activities, 148–149
 - artifacts, 147–148
 - best practices, 149–150
 - configuring selected components, 152–153
 - disciplines, 146–147
 - and documenting, 11–12
 - mentor assistance, 162–163
 - plug-ins, 150, 152
 - process components, 152–153
 - required components, 155–156
 - with RUP Builder, 151–153
 - small, medium, and large subsets, 151–152
 - with solution components, 153–155
 - tools, 149
 - Productivity, and RUP adoption, 73–75
 - Products, assessing current, 58–60
 - Proficient performer skill level, 189
 - Project implementation plans, 118–120
 - Project Management discipline, 24, 25
 - Project management methods
 - adding to your RUP process, 157–158, 221–227
 - PPS, 225–227
 - PROPS, 222–225
 - Project manager responsibilities, 43
 - Project-level process, 133, 136, 142.
 - Project-specific process. See project-level process.
 - Project teams. See teams.
 - Projects. See also pilot projects; RUP projects.
 - assessing current, 58–60
 - first under RUP. See pilot projects.
 - Propositional knowledge, 191
 - PROPS project management method, 222–225
- Q
- Quality problems, 63
- R
- The Rational Unified Process: An Introduction...*, 30–33
 - Rational Unified Process (RUP). See RUP (Rational Unified Process).
 - Reactive support, 136
 - Real-urgency strategy, 107
 - Renewal room, 81
 - Reports. See documentation; plans.
 - Requirements, capturing and managing, 62–63
 - Requirements discipline, 24, 25
 - Resistance to change. See also motivation;
 - organizational support.
 - assessing, 55–57
 - confusion room, 80–81
 - contentment room, 79

- Resistance to change. continued
 denial room, 79–80, 81
 Four Rooms of Change, 78–82
 kickoff meeting, 51–53
 renewal room, 81
 typical personalities, 199–202
- Reviews, 124
- Risk-driven development, 32
- Risks. See also opportunities.
 architectural, 32
 identifying, 6–7, 12–13, 92–93
 managing, 38–39
- Roadmaps, 175–176
- Roles, 157, 170–171
- RUP Builder, 151–153, 168–169
- RUP Mentor. See mentors.
- RUP Modeler, 170–171
- RUP Organizer, 169–170
- RUP processes. See processes (RUP).
- RUP projects
 architecture-centric process, 39
 failure to move to maintenance, 46
 identifying, 104–105
 incremental development, 37 iterative development, 36–38 model driven process, 39–41
 ownership, 114
 planning to death, 43–44
 premature start of construction, 45–46 principles, 41
 risk management, 38–39
 seven common traps, 42–45
 skipping problem analysis, 44
 slipping schedules, 44–45
 spirit, 41
 teams sharing wisdom, 42 testing too late, 46
 traceability, 40
vs. traditional projects, 36–38
 use cases, 39–41
vs. waterfall projects, 36–38
- RUP (Rational Unified Process)
See also adopting RUP
See also disciplines
See also documenting your RUP process
See also examples, of RUP implementations
See also implementing RUP
See also monitoring process implementation
See also processes (RUP)
 best practices, 149–150
 chart describing, 24
 commercial availability, 23–24 competence areas. See disciplines.
 configuring. See customizing RUP.
 content, 22–23
 inputs and outputs. See artifacts.
 primary elements
 See artifacts
 See disciplines
 See roles
 See workflow processes involved in. See disciplines.
 structure of, 25–28
 updating, 23–24
- S
- Schedules, 44–45, 63
- Scope creep, 62
- Scope of adoption plans, 94–98
- Selecting a process. See processes (RUP), selecting.
- Selling RUP. See motivation; organizational support; resistance.
- Seminar, communication channel, 4, 102–103
- Sequential process. See waterfall process.
- Sharing wisdom (experiences), 42, 139–140
- Single-domain strategy, 109–110
- Skill levels of adopters, 187–190
- Software development processes. See also processes (RUP).
 architecture-centric process, 32, 39
 disciplines, 24, 25–26
 iterative process, 36–38
 use-case-driven process, 33
 waterfall process, 36–38
- Software development projects. See projects.
- Software engineering process, 19–22
- Software Process Improvement and Capability dTermination (SPICE), 85
- Software projects. See projects.
- Solution components, 153–155
- Speculative development, 58
- SPICE (Software Process Improvement and Capability dTermination), 85
- Spirit of RUP projects, 41

- Stage 0: Before adoption, RUP process
 - documentation, 177
 - Stage 1: Pilot projects, RUP process
 - documentation, 177–178
 - Stage 2: First draft, RUP process
 - documentation, 178–179
 - Stage 3: Follow-on projects, RUP process
 - documentation, 180
 - Stages in RUP. See disciplines; phases.
 - Stakeholders, 50–51
 - Start-up Workshops. See workshops.
 - Strategies for adoptions, 105–112
 - Supporting the RUP adoption, 113–126, 134–136
- T
- Teams
 - implementation, 89, 114
 - RUP effects on efficiency, 33–34
 - sharing wisdom, 42
 - Templates, 159–160, 175
 - Terminology, 30–33
 - Test discipline, 24, 25
 - Testers, personality type, 201
 - Time boxing, 156
 - Time requirements, RUP adoption, 111–112
 - Tools
 - customizing, 170–171
 - selecting for your RUP process, 149
 - support, assessing, 60–61
 - Traceability, 40
 - Traditional process. See waterfall process.
 - Training
 - content, 134
 - employees, 121–123
 - learning curve, RUP adoption, 73–74
 - mentors, 125–126
 - workshops, 123, 197
 - Transition phase
 - completion criteria, 32
 - duration, 27
 - iterations, 27
 - Traps
 - adoption plan ownership, 101–102
 - artifact hysteria, 181
 - design deficiencies, 63
 - documenting what you don't know, 179, 181
 - documenting your process, 180–181
 - excessive mandatory processes, 181
 - excessive planning, 7, 94, 181
 - external consultants, 89
 - failure to move to maintenance, 46
 - focusing on problems, 67
 - mentors not involved, 74–82
 - mentor over-involvement, 202–203
 - out-of-sync product and documentation, 63–64
 - planning to death, 43–44
 - poor-quality products, 63
 - poor schedule estimation, 63
 - premature start of construction, 45–46
 - process ownership, 89
 - real-world examples, 211, 217–218
 - requirements, capture and management, 62–63
 - scope creep, 62
 - seven deadly sins, 42–45
 - skipping problem analysis, 44
 - slipping schedules, 44–45
 - testing too late, 46
 - top-down approach to change, 81–82
- U
- Use-case-driven process, 33
 - Use cases, 33, 39–41
 - Users. See people.
- V
- Vocabulary, 30–33
 - Volvo Information Technology, sample RUP implementation, 205–212
- W
- Waterfall process, 36–38
 - Web page, RUP process documentation, 167–169
 - Wide and shallow, strategy, 105–106
 - What Computers Can't Do*, 187–190
 - Word processors, 167
 - Work meetings. See workshops.
 - Work product. See artifacts.
 - Work units. See artifacts.
 - Workflow details, customizing, 170–171
 - Workshops, 123, 197

