Numerics

2.4-GHz frequency band, 60
ETSI channel scheme, 66
Japan channel scheme, 67
NA channel scheme, 65

5-GHz frequency band, 62, 64–65
ETSI channel scheme, 67
Japan channel scheme, 67
NA channel scheme, 66

802.11
direct-sequence channels, 8
direct-sequence spread spectrum, 7
frequency hopping, 8–9
overview, 6
working groups, 9–10

802.11a, 10
802.11b, 11, 60, 94
802.11f IAPaP, 194–195
802.11g, 11
802.3af, 211
900-Mhz frequency band, 59

A
access point (AP) selection dual-radio architecture, 131, 133
overview, 131
radio styles, 134–135
single-radio architecture, 131, 133
access points (AP), 16, 57 documentation, 306
mounting
  ceiling mounting, 296
  overview, 293–294
  wall mounting, 294

site surveying, 158–160
accessories, 21–22
aesthetics and installation, 286, 288
AirMagnet SiteViewer, 237, 239, 241, 270, 272, 309 AirMagnet utility, 233, 235–236
amplifiers, 75–76
amplitude modulation, 28
antenna connectors, 76–77
antennas
directional properties, 38
directional antennas, 40
on directional antennas, 38–39
diversity, 42–45
documentation, 307
examples, 40
dish antenna, 41
patch antenna, 41
sectorized antenna, 41
Yagi antenna, 41
gain, 37
identifying types, 253
mounting, 296, 298–299
ondirectional antennas, 163
outdoor bridge deployments, 332
overview, 36
polarization, 40
site surveying, 163–164
AP locations, identifying, 253
applications
environments
education facilities, 93, 95
enterprise offices, 89–91
health care industry, 91–93
hotel, conventions, and hospitality systems, 97–98 environments (Continued)
  manufacturing facilities, 95–96
  overview, 83
  public hotspots, 98–99
  retail/bar coding, 84–89
  SOHO sites, 99–100
requirements
  overview, 100–101
  technology requirements, 101–104
architectures
  centralized intelligence
    overview, 117–118
    packet flows, 120–122
  core device, 118, 120
  distributed intelligence
    overview, 115, 117
    packet flows, 120–122
  dual-radio, 131, 133
  edge device, 123
  free-space optics (FSO), 130 mesh networking, 129
  overview, 114–115
  single-radio, 131, 133
  switched antenna
    overview, 124
    phased array antenna extends range, 126–128
    phased array antenna technology, 125–126
area-by-area analyses, 305
Aruba network, 243–244
assisted site survey tools
  Aruba network, 243–244
  Cisco Assisted Site Survey utility, 244–245
  overview, 243
assisted site surveys
  overview, 219, 273
  RF configuration parameters, 276–277
assisted site surveys
  tools, using, 276
  user-density test, 274
assisted survey and installation tools, 113
attenuators, 166
automated site surveys, 218–219 automatic site survey tools
  Aruba network, 243–244
  Cisco Assisted Site Survey utility, 244–245
  overview, 243

B

bandwidth, 26, 49
bar code scanners, 85
battery packs, 170–171
binary phase shift keying (BPSK), 30
Bluetooth, 12
bridge system characteristics, 313
bridge topologies, 314–315
bridges, 18, 20
building codes, 291–292
building construction, 179–180
building contents, 180, 183–184 building-to-building connectivity, 107–108

cables
  overview, 45–46
  site surveying, 165–166
cabling requirements
  802.3af, 211
  overview, 208
  PoE
    overview, 208–210
    proprietary methods, 212, 214
capabilities label, 14
celling mounting of APs, 296
cell boundaries, defining, 258–261

cell coverage, overlapping, 262–263
centralized intelligence architecture
  overview, 117–118
  packet flows, 120–122
channel selections
  ETSI domain channel scheme
    2.4 GHz, 66
    5 GHz, 67
    overview, 66
  Japan channel scheme
    2.4 GHz, 67
    5 GHz, 67
    overview, 67
  NA domain channel scheme
    2.4 GHz, 65
    5 GHz, 66
    overview, 65
  other countries and, 67
    overview, 65
channel utilization, 232
Cisco Aironet Client Utility (ACU), 221–222, 224–225
Cisco Aironet Desktop Utility (ADU), 226, 228
Cisco Assisted Site Survey utility, 244–245
Cisco Wireless LAN Security (Sankar & Sundaralingam), 113
client devices
  overview, 17
  site surveying, 160–161
client product selection Ethernet client, 137
    overview, 136–138
  PCI card, 137
clients, roaming, 195–196 complementary code keying (CCK), 31
connectors
  overview, 45
  site surveying, 162
  weatherproofing, 332–333
contact list, 305
cookie cutter designs, 188
core device architecture, 118, 120 coverage
  bandwidth compared, 49
  distance, determining possible, 325 documentation, 308
  map, 152
  modulation compared, 50
current network and communications information, 147–148
current equipment installed, 147
LAN connectivity, 147
security, 147
type of wired network installed, 147
WAN connectivity, 147
customer information
  address, city, state, zip code, 145
  company name, 145
  date of delivery, 145
  e-mail, 146
  mobile phone, 146
  phone and fax number, 145
  PO date, 145
  point of contact name, 145
  purchase order number, 145
  work-order number, 145
customer restrictions, 186
data rates, 33–34, 258
decibels (dB), 35
demilitarized zone (DMZ), 120
device roaming, developing policy for, 193–194 digital cameras and site surveying, 172
dipole antenna, 37
directional antennas, 40
directional properties, 38
directional antennas, 40
  omnidirectional antennas, 38–39
direct-sequence channels, 8
direct-sequence spread spectrum, 7
dish antenna, 41
distributed intelligence architecture
  overview, 115 117
  packet flows, 120–122
diversity antenna systems, 42–45, 134
documentation
  final site survey report
    area-by-area analyses, 305
    contact list, 305
    existing wireless system definition, 304
    general network description, 304
    objective, 304
    overview, 303
    proposed WLAN components, 304
    RF spectrum analyses results, 305
    site description, 304
    survey dates, 304
    testing procedure, 304
    wireless sniffer traces, 305
  of actual work
    antenna locations, 307
    AP locations, 306
    coverage issues, 308
    overview, 305–306, 308–309
of actual work
  overview, 303
  site survey, 270
  site survey report-generation programs, 309–310
dual-band surveys, 278
dual-radio architecture, 131, 133
Dynamic Frequency Selection (DFS), 64
earth bulge, 51–52
dual-band surveys, 278
dual-radio architecture, 131, 133
Effective Isotropic Radiated Power (EIRP), 68
dual-band surveys, 278
dual-radio architecture, 131, 133
Dynamic Frequency Selection (DFS), 64
enclosures, 290
effective isotropic radiated power (EIRP), 68
effectiveness, 278
educational facility, 93, 95, 268
enclosures, 290
enterprise offices, 89–91
equipment installation limitations
  customer restrictions, 186
environmental issues
  concerns, 187–188
  feasibility study, 322
  installation and, 290–291
evironments
  education facilities, 93, 95
  enterprise offices, 89–91
  health care industry, 91–93
  hotel, conventions, and hospitality systems, 97–98
  manufacturing facilities, 95–96
  overview, 83
  public hotspots, 98–99
  retail/bar coding
    overview, 84
    retail, 85–87
warehousing, 88–89
SOHO sites, 99–100
environmental concerns, 187–188
equipment installation limitations (Continued)
  overview, 185
  regulatory limitations, 186–187
ethernet
  client, 137
  installation, 300
ETSI, 57
ETSI domain channel scheme
  2.4 GHz, 66
  5 GHz, 67
  overview, 66
ETSI regulatory power levels
  2.4 GHz power levels, 72
  5 GHz power levels, 73
  overview, 72
existing wireless system definition, 304

F

facility, inspecting, 250 facility documentation
  building construction, 179–180
  building contents, 180, 183–184
  overview, 177
  site map, 178
  user areas and density, 184–185
FCC, 57
FCC Class B regulations, 57
feasibility study
  coverage distance, determining possible, 325
  environmental issues, 322
  Fresnel zone, 322–323, 325
  line of sight, determining, 319–320, 322
  overview, 318
features of WLAN (Continued)
  remote debugging, 114
  rogue AP detection, 112
  self-healing systems, 114
  software upgrade capabilities, 112
final site survey report
  area-by-area analyses, 305
  contact list, 305
  existing wireless system definition, 304
  general network description, 304
  objective, 304
  overview, 303–304
  proposed WLAN components, 304
  RF spectrum analyses results, 305
  site description, 304
  survey dates, 304
  testing procedure, 304
  wireless sniffer traces, 305
floor plan or facility blueprint, obtaining, 250 free-space optics (FSO) architecture, 130
frequencies of operation
  2.4-GHz frequency band, 60
  5-GHz frequency band, 62, 64–65
  900-MHz frequency band, 59
  overview, 58
frequency, 25
frequency hopping (FH), 8–9
frequency modulation, 29
Fresnel zone, 51–52, 322–323, 325

G-H

gain, 37
general network description, 304
hazardous areas
  overview, 151
  site-specific requirements, 188 health and safety regulations, 77–78 health-care facility, 91–93, 268
hemispherical antenna, 41
hertz (Hz), 25
Hertz, Heinrich, 25
HiperLAN, 13
Home RF, 13
hotel, conventions, and hospitality systems, 97–98

I-L

IAPP (Inter-Access Point Protocol), 194–195
installation
aesthetics, 286, 288
antenna mounting, 296, 298–299
AP mounting
ceiling mounting, 296
overview, 293–294
wall mounting, 294
building codes, 291–292
environmental conditions, 290–291 ethernet considerations, 300 facility construction, 286
overview, 285
physical security, 289
installation of bridges
antenna alignment, 332
indoor testing before, 331–332
lightning protection, 327, 330
overview, 326–327
parallel bridge links for increased throughput, 333–334
weatherproofing connectors, 332–333
Intel Centrino utility, 228 intentional radiators, 56 interference
detection, 255–257
SOHO sites, 99
study, 326
interoperability, 107
IP subnet roaming, 106
isotropic antenna, 37
Japan channel scheme
2.4 GHz, 67
5 GHz, 67
overview, 67
Japan domain power levels
2.4 GHz, 73
5 GHz, 74
overview, 73
LAN Fielder tool, 246
Layer 2 roaming, 196–197
Layer 3 roaming, 197
Layer 3 wireless switching, 202–203
lightning protection, 327, 330
line of sight, determining, 319–320, 322
load balancing, 107

M-N
manual site survey tools
AirMagnet site survey utility (SiteViewer), 233, 235–237, 239, 241
Cisco Aironet Client Utility (ACU), 221–222, 224–225
Cisco Aironet Desktop Utility (ADU), 226, 228
Intel Centrino utility, 228
Netgear clients, 231
ORiNOCO survey utility, 230–231
overview, 221
standard utilities, systems that do not support, 242
wireless 802.11 phones, 232
manual site surveys
overview, 218
performing, 263, 265–266, 268, 270
manufacturing facilities, 95–96
Maxwell, James Clerk, 25 mesh networking architecture, 129 milliWatt (mW), 35
Mobile IP
  disadvantages, 200
  overview, 198–199
  Proxy Mobile IP, 200–201
mobile node roaming, 198
mobility, 113
modulation
  amplitude modulation, 28
  coverage compared, 50
  data rates, 33–34
  frequency modulation, 29
  orthogonal frequency division multiplexing, 32–33
  overview, 26, 28
  phase modulation, 29–30
    binary phase shift keying (BPSK), 30
    complementary code keying (CCK), 31
    quadrature phase shift keying (QPSK), 31
  quadrature amplitude modulation, 31–32
mounting hardware, 172–173
multipath distortion, 42–43 multipath fading, 33
National Electric Code (NEC), 291–292
Netgear clients, 231
network performance, 207–208 network switch, 114
noise, 48
nomadic node roaming, 198
non-802.11 equipment and interference, 256
North American (NA) domain channel scheme
  2.4 GHz, 65
  5 GHz, 66
  overview, 65
North American regulatory domain, 57
North American regulatory power levels
  2.4-GHz power levels, 68
  5-GHz power levels, 71–72
  overview, 68
omnidirectional antennas, 38–39, 163
Optimatic tool, 246
ORiNOCO survey utility, 230–231
orthogonal frequency division multiplexing, 32–33
outdoor bridge deployments
  applications
    overview, 316
    QoS, 317
    security, 318
    VLANs, 316
    Voice over IP, 317
  bridge system characteristics, 313
  bridge topologies, 314–315
  feasibility study
    coverage distance, determining possible, 325
    environmental issues, 322
    Fresnel zone, 322–323, 325
    line of sight, determining, 319–320, 322
    overview, 318
  installation
    antenna alignment, 332
    indoor testing before, 331–332
    lightning protection, 327, 330
    overview, 326–327
    parallel bridge links for increased throughput, 333–334
    weatherproofing connectors, 332–333
  interference study, 326 424 outdoor bridge links

outdoor bridge links
  antennas, 153
  building exterior construction, 153
  existing towers, 153
  line of sight, 153
  roof access, 154
  site-specific information, 153

outdoor RF issues
  earth bulge, 51–52
  Fresnel zone, 51–52
  overview, 50
  propagation and losses, 51

outdoor tools, 170

P

packet flows
  centralized intelligence architecture, 120–122
  distributed intelligence architecture, 120–122

packet size, 258
panel antenna, 41
parallel bridge links for increased throughput, 333–334
patch antenna, 41
PCI card, 137
personnel requirements, 152
phase modulation, 29–30
  binary phase shift keying (BPSK), 30
  complementary code keying (CCK), 31
  quadrature phase shift keying (QPSK), 31
phased array antenna extends range, 126–128
phased array antenna technology, 125–126
physical measuring devices, 167
physical security, 289
ping command, 242

plenum locations
  installation, 292
  regulations, 79

PoE (power over Ethernet)
  overview, 208–210
  proprietary methods, 212, 214

point-of-sale (POS) device, 86 point-to-multipoint (PTMP) systems, 69–70 point-to-point systems, 69–70
polarization, 40
portable analyzer tools, 169–170
power ratings, 35
power values
  decibels, 35
  overview, 34
  power ratings, 35

Predictor tool, 245

pre-site survey form information
  coverage map, 152
  current network and communications information, 147–148
  current equipment installed, 147
  LAN connectivity, 147
  security, 147
  type of wired network installed, 147
  WAN connectivity, 147

customer information
  address, city, state, and zip code, 145
  company name, 145
  date of delivery, 145
  e-mail, 146
  mobile phone, 146
  phone and fax number, 145
  PO date, 145
  point of contact name, 145
customer information (Continued)
  purchase order number, 145
  work-order number, 145

outdoor bridge links
  antennas, 153
  building exterior construction, 153
  existing towers, 153
  line of sight, 153
  roof access, 154
  site-specific information, 153

overview, 143–145
personnel requirements, 152
scope of work, 152

site information, 149
  ceiling construction, 150
  ceiling height, 150
  floor construction, 150
  hazardous areas, 151
  lift availability, 150
  plenum ceiling, 150
  stock levels, 150
  temperature ranges, 151
  wall construction, 150

site survey location
  name of sites, 146
  number of sites, 146
  point of contact information, 146
  working hours, 146

WLAN equipment requirements
  special needs, 149
  total number of users, 149
  price-verifier scanning device, 85 problem areas on diagram, identifying potential, 251
  proposed WLAN components, 304
  proprietary WLANs, 4–5
  Proxy Mobile IP, 200–201
  PSP (power-savings protocol), 197
  public hotspots, 98–99

Q

QoS (quality of service), 105 deployment schemes, 206
  downstream QoS, 207
  network performance and, 207–208
  outdoor bridge deployments, 317
  overview, 206
  upstream QoS, 207
  quadrature amplitude modulation, 31–32
  quadrature phase shift keying (QPSK), 31

R

radio frequency (RF)
  antennas
    dipole antenna, 37
    directional properties, 38–40
    diversity, 42–45
    examples, 40–41
    gain, 37
    hemispherical antenna, 41
    isotropic antenna, 37
    overview, 36
    panel antenna, 41
    polarization, 40
radio frequency (RF) (Continued)
bandwidth, 26
cables, 45–46
components
  frequency, 25
  modulation, 26, 28–34
  overview, 25
  signal strength, 34
configuration parameters, 276–277
connectors, 45
outdoor environment, calculating distances for, 319–320
overview, 25
power values
  decibels, 35
  overview, 34
  power ratings, 35
site propagation
  coverage versus bandwidth, 49
  frequency versus coverage, 47
  material absorption, reflection and refraction, 47 modulation versus coverage, 50
  noise, 48
  outdoor RF issues, 50–52
  overview, 46
  reflection, 47
  signal, 48
  signal-to-noise ratio, 48
site survey and, 253–255 radio management, 114
radio styles, 134–135
receive threshold, 34 receiver desensitization, 132–133
reflection, 47
regulations
  amplifiers, 75–76
antenna connectors, 76–77
channel selections
  ETSI domain channel scheme, 66–67
  Japan channel scheme, 67
  NA domain channel scheme, 65–66
  other countries and, 67
  overview, 65
frequencies of operation
  2.4-GHz frequency band, 60
  5-GHz frequency band, 62, 64–65
  900-MHz frequency band, 59
  overview, 58
health and safety, 77–78
overview, 55
plenum locations, 79
remote antennas, 76–77
RF regulatory domains, 57
spread-spectrum regulations, 55
technology requirements, 104
transmitter power levels
  EIRP, 68
  ETSI Regulatory power levels, 72–73
  Japan domain power levels, 73–74
  North American Regulatory power levels, 68, 71–72
  overview, 67
  world mode (802.11d), 74
regulatory limitations, 186–187
remote antennas, 76–77
remote debugging, 114
repeater usage, 277
requirements
  overview, 100–101
  technology requirements
    AP location, 102
    bandwidth, 101–102
    client devices, 103
requirements (Continued)

- other systems, 104
- overview, 101
- physical areas, 102
- regulatory issues, 104
- RF signal, 104
- user density, 101
- vendors, 103
- VoIP connections, 102

retail environment, 85–87

retail facility, 263, 266

retail/bar coding
- overview, 84
- retail, 85–87
- warehousing, 88–89

RF analyzers
- site surveying
  - overview, 168
  - portable analyzer tools, 169–170
  - spectrum analyzers, 169

RF regulatory domains, 57

RF spectrum analyses results, 305

roaming
- clients, 195–196
- device roaming, developing policy for, 193–194
- IAPP, 194–195
- Layer 2 roaming, 196–197
- Layer 3 roaming, 197
- Layer 3 wireless switching, 202–203

Mobile IP
- disadvantages, 200
- overview, 198–199
- Proxy Mobile IP, 200–201

mobile node roaming, 198

nomadic node roaming, 198

overview, 192–193

rogue AP detection, 112

S

Sankar, Krishna, 113

scope of work, 152

sectorized antenna, 41

security
- outdoor bridge deployments, 318
- overview, 106
- physical security, 289
- SOHO sites, 99

self-healing systems, 114

services
- interoperability, 107
- IP subnet roaming, 106
- load balancing, 107
- overview, 105
- QoS, 105
- security, 106
- VLANs, 105

signal, 48

signal strength, 34

signal-to-noise ratio, 48

sine waves, 26

single-radio architecture, 131, 133

site description, 304

site information, 149
- ceiling construction, 150
- ceiling height, 150
- floor construction, 150
- hazardous areas, 151
- lift availability, 150
- plenum ceiling, 150
- stock levels, 150
- temperature ranges, 151
- wall construction, 150

site map, 178
site propagation

coverage versus bandwidth, 49
frequency versus coverage, 47
material absorption, reflection, and refraction, 47
modulation versus coverage, 50
noise, 48
outdoor RF issues
  earth bulge, 51–52
  Fresnel zone, 51–52
overview, 50
  propagation and losses, 51
overview, 46
reflection, 47
signal, 48
signal-to-noise ratio, 48

site survey

AirMagnet site survey utility (SiteViewer), 270, 272
assisted site surveys
  overview, 273
  RF configuration parameters, 276–277
  tools, using, 276
  user-density test, 274
dual-band surveys, 278
final verification, 279
for voice, 278–279
overview, 249
process
  AP locations and antenna types, identifying, 253
cell boundaries, defining, 258–261
cell coverage, overlapping, 262–263
documentation, 270
facility inspection, 250
floor plan or facility blueprint, obtaining, 250
interference detection, 255–257 manual survey, 263, 265–266, 268, 270
overview, 249
potential problem areas on diagram, identifying, 251 RF issues, 253–255
user areas on diagram, identifying, 251
walkabout test, 258
repeater usage, 277
site survey kits, 173, 175
site survey location
  name of sites, 146
  number of sites, 146
  point of contact information, 146
  working hours, 146
site survey preparation balancing wants, needs, and capabilities, 154–155
pre-site survey form information
  coverage map, 152
  current network and communications information, 147–148
  customer information, 145–146
  outdoor bridge links, 153–154
  overview, 143–145
  personnel requirements, 152
  scope of work, 152
  site information, 149, 151
  site survey location, 146
  WLAN equipment requirements, 148–149
  user input, 154
site survey report-generation programs, 309–310
site survey tools
  assisted site survey
    Aruba network, 243–244
    Cisco Assisted Site Survey utility, 244–245
    overview, 243
automatic site survey
   Aruba network, 243–244
Cisco Assisted Site Survey utility, 244–245
   overview, 243
manual site survey
   AirMagnet site survey utility (SiteViewer), 233, 235–237, 239, 241
Cisco Aironet Client Utility (ACU), 221–222, 224–226
Cisco Aironet Desktop Utility (ADU), 226, 228
   Intel Centrino utility, 228
Netgear clients, 231
ORiNOCO survey utility, 230–231
   overview, 221
standard utilities, systems that do not support, 242
wireless 802.11 phones, 232
   overview, 217
ping command, 242
site survey kits, 173, 175
theoretical site survey
   LAN Fielder tool, 246
Optimatic tool, 246
   overview, 245–246
Predictor tool, 245
types of site surveys
   assisted site survey, 219
automated site survey, 218–219
manual site survey, 218
   overview, 218
theoretical site survey, 220–221
WLAN equipment
   access points, 158–160
antennas, 163–164
attenuators, 166
battery packs, 170–171
cables, 165–166
client devices, 160–161
connectors, 162
digital cameras, 172
   mounting hardware, 172–173
   outdoor tools, 170
   overview, 157–158
physical measuring devices, 167
RF analyzers, 168–170
two-way radios, 170
site surveys
   types of
      assisted site survey, 219
      automated site survey, 218–219
      manual site survey, 218
      overview, 218
      theoretical site survey, 220–221
site-specific requirements
   cookie cutter designs, 188
   limitations affecting equipment installations customer restrictions, 186
      environmental concerns, 187–188
      overview, 185
      regulatory limitations, 186–187
   recommended facility documentation
      building construction, 179–180
      building contents, 180, 183–184
      overview, 177
      site map, 178
      user areas and density, 184–185
small office/home office (SOHO) sites, 99–100
software upgrade capabilities, 112
spectrum analyzers, 169
spread-spectrum regulations, 55
standards-based WLANs, 5–6 Sundaralingam, Sri, 113
survey dates, 304
switched antenna architecture
  overview, 124
  phased array antenna extends range, 126–128
  phased array antenna technology, 125–126

T
  technology requirements
    AP location, 102
    bandwidth, 101–102
    client devices, 103
    other systems, 104
    overview, 101
    physical areas, 102
    regulatory issues, 104
    RF signal, 104
    user density, 101
    vendors, 103
    VoIP connections, 102
  TELEC, 57
  theoretical site survey tools
    LAN Fielder tool, 246
    Optimatic tool, 246
    overview, 245–246
    Predictor tool, 245
  theoretical site surveys, 220–221 Transmit Power Control (TPC), 64 transmitter power, 258
  transmitter power levels
    EIRP, 68
    ETSI Regulatory power levels
      2.4-GHz power levels, 72
      5-GHz power levels, 73
      overview, 72
    Japan domain power levels
      2.4 GHz, 73
      5 GHz, 74
      overview, 73
  North American Regulatory power levels
    2.4-GHz power levels, 68
    5-GHz power levels, 71–72
    overview, 68
  two-way radios, 170

U-V
  ultra wideband, 13
  unintentional radiators, 56
  Unlicensed National Information Infrastructure (UNII) bands, 62
  user areas and density, 184–185
  user areas on diagram, identifying, 251
  user input, 154
  user-density test, 274
  verification, 279
  VLANs, 203, 205
    outdoor bridge deployments, 316
    overview, 105
  Vocera Communications Badge, 92 voice over IP (VoIP) phones, 86, 317 voice site surveys, 278–279

W-Y
  walkabout test, 258
  wall mounting of APs, 294 wants, needs, and capabilities, balancing, 154–155 warehouse facility, 266–267 warehousing environment, 88–89
  Wi-Fi
    capabilities label, 14
    certifications, 14
    overview, 14
  wired network requirements
    cabling requirements
      802.3af, 211
cabling requirements (Continued)

overview, 208
PoE, 208–210, 212, 214
overview, 191
QoS
deployment schemes, 206
downstream QoS, 207
network performance and, 207–208
overview, 206
upstream QoS, 207
roaming
802.11f IAPP, 194–195
clients, 195–196
device roaming, developing policy for, 193–194
Layer 2 roaming, 196–197
Layer 3 roaming, 197
Layer 3 wireless switching, 202–203
Mobile IP, 198–201
mobile node roaming, 198
nomadic node roaming, 198
overview, 192–193
VLANs, 203, 205
wireless 802.11 phones, 232
wireless fidelity network, 3 wireless LAN. See WLAN
Wireless LAN Interoperability Forum (WLIF), 5
Wireless LAN Solution Engine (WLSE), 310
wireless sniffer traces, 305
wireless standards
Bluetooth, 12
compared, 11–12
evolution of, 4
802.11, 6–11
proprietary WLANs, 4–5
standards-based WLANs, 5–6
HiperLAN, 13
Home RF, 13
ultra wideband, 13
WLAN
802.11, 6
802.11a, 10
802.11b, 11
802.11g, 11
direct-sequence channels, 8
direct-sequence spread spectrum, 7
frequency hopping, 8–9
working groups, 9–10
access points, 16
accessories, 21–22
bridges, 18, 20
client devices, 17
components
access points, 16
accessories, 21–22
bridges, 18, 20
client devices, 17
overview, 15–16
WLAN equipment
access points, 158–160
antennas, 163–164
attenuators, 166
battery packs, 170–171
cables, 165–166
client devices, 160–161
connectors, 162
digital cameras, 172
mounting hardware, 172–173
outdoor tools, 170
overview, 157–158
physical measuring devices, 167
RF analyzers, 168
WLAN equipment (Continued)

portable analyzer tools, 169–170
spectrum analyzers, 169
two-way radios, 170

WLAN equipment requirements
AP manufacturer, 148
AP model number, 148
coverage areas, 149
end-user devices, 148
minimum data rates, 148
packet size, 149
rate shifting, 149
redundancy, 149
special needs, 149
total number of users, 149

work documentation
antenna locations, 307
AP locations, 306
coverage issues, 308
overview, 305–306, 308–309
working groups, 9–10
world mode (802.11d) 74
Yagi antenna, 41