

Index

Symbols

4GLs (fourth-generation languages), 104, 116

A

- actions, developing, 233
- activities, eliminating, 68-69
- adaptive control, 140-144, 213, 246
 - in agility, 366
 - architectural overview, 213-215
 - business simulation, 225, 232-234
 - business user tools, 228
 - champion/challenger approach, 140-142, 216, 229-230
 - decision analysis, 230-231
 - decision models, 142-143, 222
 - efficient frontier, 222-224
 - experimental design, 217-219, 230
 - inline solvers, 226
 - linear and nonlinear programming, 227
 - modeling tools, 225-226
 - optimization engines, 226
 - optimization model design, 231
 - optimization techniques, 219-220
 - compared to rules, 220-221
 - constraints, 220
 - optimization models, 219, 231
 - OR (operations research), 221
 - process, 229-234
 - production environment, 227-228
 - in SDLC (software development life cycle), 360
 - simulation/testing environment, 228
- additive services, 323
- adjacent/overlapping problems, solving
 - calculating ROI, 294-295
 - managing change, 294
 - overview, 291
 - reusing rules, 293-294
- adopting EDM
 - analytic projects, 260
 - calculating ROI, 267-268
 - deploying model, 264-266
 - developing model, 263
 - identifying first projects, 260-262
 - identifying integration points, 262
 - phase I: piecemeal approach
 - best practices, 271-272
 - calculating ROI, 257-259
 - capturing rules, 254-255
 - data quality and integration, 270
 - decision services, 271
 - deploying and maintaining rules, 256
 - designing decision service, 254
 - designing repository, 268-270
 - development
 - methodology, 271
 - identifying first projects, 250-253

- internal promotion, 272
- overview, 248-249
- SmartEnough Logistics
 - example, 310-311
 - tools, 270
- phase 2: local decision
 - management
 - analyzing existing rules, 277-278
 - calculating ROI, 284
 - champion/challenger approach, 284-286
 - decision trees, 280
 - developing model-dependent rules, 283
 - finding suitable projects, 274-275
 - integrating rules and analytics, 274
 - mining data for rules, 279
 - overview, 273
 - segmenting populations before scoring, 282-283
- phase 3: expansion
 - broadening analytic base, 295-299
 - enterprise repository, 288
 - managing scenarios, 300-301
 - overlapping and adjacent problems, 291-295
 - overview, 287
 - proactive decision identification, 290
 - ROI, 290-291
 - SmartEnough Logistics
 - example, 312
 - standard deployment infrastructure, 289
 - standard rule management infrastructure, 289
 - standardized tools and approaches, 289-290
 - portfolio assessment, 250
 - steady state
 - decision service hubs, 304-305, 308-309
 - enterprise policy hubs, 304
 - overview, 301, 304, 309
 - step-by-step process, 247
 - advantages of EDM, 368-369
 - affinity grouping, 157
 - agents, 203
 - agile approaches. See agility
 - agile compliance, 23
 - agility, 335, 375
 - adaptive control, 366
 - agile compliance, 23
 - analytics, 365
 - business agility, 12
 - characteristic of smart enough systems, 22-23
 - data integration, 338
 - decision agility, 335
 - definition of, 23
 - of operational decisions, 18
 - process agility, 335
 - rules, 363-365
 - AI (artificial intelligence), 114-116
 - Ambler, Scott, 294, 363
 - analysis, decision analysis, 230-231
 - analysis latency, 337
 - analytic modelers, 155
 - analytic modeling, 245
 - analytic understanding readiness, 238-240
 - analytics, 25
 - in agility, 365
 - analytic projects, 260
 - calculating ROI, 267-268
 - deploying model, 264-266
 - developing model, 263
 - identifying first projects, 260-262
 - identifying integration points, 262
 - architectural overview, 147-152
 - broadening analytic base
 - calculating ROI, 299
 - formalizing trade-off approach, 297-298
 - identifying model potential, 297
 - increasing model iteration/development speed, 297
 - optimization and simulation, 298-299
 - overview, 295
 - centralizing, 288
 - data mining techniques, 155-157
 - data requirements for, 132
 - data sets needed, 167
 - descriptive analytics, 132
 - integrating with rules, 274
 - management technology
 - for, 163
 - automated tuning, 168-169
 - BI/PM infrastructure (business intelligence and performance management), 165
 - content management systems, 165
 - data preparation tools, 166-167
 - data warehouses, 164
 - model deployment, 168
 - modeling tools, 167-168
 - operational data store (ODS), 164
 - operational databases, 164
 - repositories, 166
 - search engines, 165
 - stream-processing engines, 166
 - model development process, 170-171
 - data mining and analysis, 174
 - data preparation, 172-173
 - data requirements determination, 172
 - model deployment, 174
 - model development, 174
 - model tuning, 175
 - model validation, 174
 - outcome determination, 171
 - predictive analytics, 133-135
 - characteristics of, 154-155
 - lift, 159-160
 - scorecards, 160-161
 - standards, 162-163
 - variables, 162
 - in RUP (Rational Unified Process), 362
 - in SDLC (software development life cycle), 359-360
 - segment profiling, 277
 - swapset analysis, 277
 - text analytics, 315
 - application decomposition, EDM and, 329-330

- appropriateness of EDM (enterprise decision management), 61-62
- architecture of adaptive control, 213-215
IT architecture, 35 architecture (IT), 321. See also decision services
data infrastructure, 317
operational infrastructure, 317 optimistic/pessimistic views of, 318-321
overview, 317
- artifacts (business rules), 182
- artificial intelligence (AI), 114-116
- Asian bank case study, 170
- Asian banking, bad loan rates case study, 264
- assessing readiness analytic understanding readiness, 239-240
business and IT collaboration readiness, 236-237
data readiness, 237-239
management focus on operations readiness, 243-244
overview, 235
willingness to change
readiness, 240-242
ROI (return on investment).
See decision yield
- assets (corporate) characteristics of, 19-20
operational decisions as, 17-20
- associate centered systems, 26-27
- associates, 5
- audits, decision audits, 382-384
- auto insurance underwriting case
study, 276-277
- auto manufacturer case study, 183
- automated modification of decisions, 315
- automated tuning, 168-169
- automating operational decisions, 6-7
- automation, 45
-
- B
- backward-chaining of business
rules, 190
- BAM (business activity monitoring), 111
- bank case study, 223-224
- bank credit processing case study, 141
- banking Asian banking: bad loan rates
case study, 264
European banking Basel II compliance case
study, 306-307
Collections and recovery
case study, 87
credit origination case study, 302-303
risk control case study, 94
- banks, European bank: risk management and compliance
(case study), 43-44
- barriers to adoption of EDM, 370
- benchmarking questions for decision audits, 382-383
- benefits of EDM (enterprise decision management), 66
- Berners-Lee, Tim, 190
- best practices, 271-272
- BI (business intelligence), 134
- BI/PM infrastructure (business
intelligence and performance management), 165
- bias, eliminating, 70
- black-box testing, business
rules, 207
- Bonaparte, Napoleon, 16
- BPM (business process management) systems, 118
and EDM, 330-335
- brand loyalty case study, 296
- BRMS (business rules
management system), 138, 177-178
defined, 190
- broadening analytic base
calculating ROI, 299
formalizing trade-off approach, 297-298
- identifying model potential, 297
- increasing model iteration/development speed, 297
optimization and simulation, 298-299
overview, 295
- business activity monitoring (BAM), 111
- business agility, 12
- business analysts, job description, 180
- business and IT collaboration readiness, 236-237
- business experts in rule development process, 205
- business intelligence, 134
operational business intelligence, 111-112
overview, 110-111
- business intelligence and performance management (BI/PM) infrastructure, 165
- Business Intelligence systems, 13
- business process management
(BPM) systems, 118
- business purpose in predictive
analytics, 154
- business rules, 116-117, 135-139.
See also rules artifacts, 182 decision flows, 182
defined, 180-181
editing, 185 execution modes, 187-190 backward-chaining, 190
inferencing, 189
sequential execution, 189
metadata and, 191-192
model-driven design and, 192-193
patterns, 184 performance and scalability issues, 202
referential integrity, 209 rule development process, 204 rule deployment step, 210-211
rule development step, 204-206

- rule maintenance step, 209-210
 - rule validation and testing step, 206, 209
 - rule sets, 181, 184-185
 - metaphors for, 186-187
 - semantics and, 190-191
 - standards for, 193-194
 - syntax, 181-182
 - technology for, 194-195
 - business user rule
 - maintenance applications, 198-200
 - decision design tools, 197-198
 - deployment
 - management, 203
 - repositories, 194-197
 - rule templates, 200-202
 - business rules engine, 190
 - business rules management
 - system (BRMS), 138, 177-178
 - defined, 190
 - business simulation, 225, 232-234
 - business user rule maintenance
 - applications, 198-200
 - business user tools (adaptive control), 228
 - business users, job
 - description, 199
- C
-
- calculating decision yield, 379
 - calculating ROI, 61, 63-64. See also decision yield
 - for broadening analytic base, 299
 - for champion/challenger approach, 286
 - cost reductions, 65
 - activities eliminated, 68-69
 - data not purchased, 69
 - finances not paid, 69-70
 - fraud avoided, 72
 - opportunity costs, 74-76
 - time not spent, 65-68
 - costs of EDM, 93-96
 - for enterprise decision-making
 - backbones, 290-291
 - for first analytic projects, 267-268
 - local decision
 - management, 284
 - for managing scenarios, 301
 - for overlapping and adjacent problems, 294-295
 - revenue growth, 76
 - better customer experience, 79-82, 85
 - better targeting, 76
 - more marketing
 - opportunities, 79
 - no comparison shopping, 79
 - rules-based approach, 257-259
 - strategic control, 82
 - knowledge retention, 93
 - resource scalability and focus, 82-86
 - risk management, 90-93
 - strategic alignment, 88-90
 - calculating TCO (total cost of ownership), 61
 - capability to learn, 24-25
 - capture latency, 337
 - capturing rules, 254-255
 - case studies
 - Asian banking: bad loan rates, 264
 - auto manufacturer, 183
 - banking risk control, 94
 - chemical/gas supply company
 - supply chain, 348-349
 - community healthcare network: hospital care, 253
 - computer systems company
 - financing, 281
 - consumer-branded goods:
 - brand loyalty, 296
 - credit card customer
 - management, 131
 - credit card dispute
 - resolution, 251
 - credit card issuer, 159
 - electronic commerce solutions
 - provider, 158-159
 - European bank: risk
 - management and compliance, 43-44
 - European banking: Basel II
 - compliance, 306-307
 - European banking: collections
 - and recovery, 87
 - European banking: credit
 - origination, 302-303
 - European credit card issuer:
 - customer
 - segmentation, 144
 - European health insurance:
 - claims handling, 332
 - European tax authority, 196
 - expanding Asian bank, 170
 - field representative
 - management, 342
 - global logistics company:
 - freight management, 355
 - government department work
 - permits, 137
 - government ship
 - inspection, 351
 - hardware supplier: preventative
 - maintenance, 83-84
 - health insurance claims
 - fraud, 75
 - high-technology manufacturing
 - quality, 139
 - hospital bad debt management, 292-293
 - life insurance company: death
 - benefits, 54
 - life insurance: regulatory
 - compliance, 73
 - loyalty program
 - management, 257
 - mall-based retailer, 151
 - multiline insurer: international
 - mid-market trade
 - credit, 98
 - national bank credit
 - processing, 141
 - personal lines insurance
 - underwriting system, 71-72
 - pharmacy benefits
 - manager, 201
 - robotics, 371
 - SmartEnough Logistics sample
 - case study, 120-123
 - telecommunications network
 - configuration, 67
 - telecommunications self-repairing
 - network, 352
 - truck manufacturer, 179
 - TVnetwork, 188-189
 - U.S. consumer magazine, 207

- U.S. property and casualty insurance: auto insurance underwriting, 276-277
 - U.S. retail bank, 223-224
 - U.S. tax authority:
 - nonfilers, 338
 - vehicle registration fees, 128
 - case-based reasoning (CBR), 156
 - categories of data, 129
 - CBR (case-based reasoning), 156
 - CDI (ecustomer data integration), 336
 - central decisions, 44
 - centralizing analytics, 288
 - CEP (complex event processing), 351-353
 - challenger approach. See champion/challenger approach
 - challenger strategy, 274
 - champion/challenger approach, 140, 142, 216, 229-230, 284-286
 - calculating ROI for, 286
 - defining champions/challengers, 284
 - reporting differences, 285
 - splitting transactions at runtime, 284-285
 - champion/challenger strategy, 274
 - change
 - managing, 294
 - willingness to change, assessing readiness for, 240-242
 - changing nature of operational decisions, 140
 - channel consistency, 344-345
 - checklists
 - Analytic Understanding Readiness, 240
 - Business and IT Collaboration Readiness, 237
 - Data Readiness, 239
 - Management Focus on Operations Readiness, 244
 - Readiness in Willingness to Change, 242
 - chemical/gas supply company, supply chain case study, 348-349
 - CIM (computation-independent model), 192
 - claims fraud case study (health insurance), 75
 - classification techniques, 156
 - closed-loop decision making, 20
 - clustering technique, 156
 - code, in rule development process, 206
 - collections and recovery case study (banking), 87
 - commercial models, 269
 - commercial software packages, 117-118
 - commoditization, resisting, 347
 - commodity enterprise applications, 346-348
 - community healthcare network, hospital care case study, 253
 - comparing decision yield, 379-381
 - comparison shopping, eliminating, 79
 - competitive advantage of operational decisions, 7-8
 - competitive analysis, decision yield, 379-381
 - complex event processing (CEP), 351-353
 - compliance, 331
 - demonstrating, 31-32
 - compliance (decisions), 51
 - computation-independent model (CIM), 192
 - computer systems company, financing case study, 281
 - conflicting decisions, 55
 - consistency, 374
 - channel consistency, 344-345
 - multiplatform consistency, 345-346
 - consistency of operational decisions, 18
 - constraints, 220
 - consumer magazine case study, 207
 - consumer-branded goods, brand loyalty case study, 296
 - content management systems, 165
 - corporate assets
 - characteristics of, 19-20
 - operational decisions as, 17-20
 - corporate performance management (CPM), 355-357
 - cost-effectiveness of operational decisions, 19
 - costs, 93-96, 375
 - cost reductions, 65
 - activities eliminated, 68-69
 - data not purchased, 69
 - finances not paid, 69-70
 - fraud avoided, 72
 - opportunity costs, 74-76
 - time not spent, 65-68
 - CPM (corporate performance management), 355-357
 - credit card customer management case study, 131
 - credit card issuer case study, 159
 - credit card issuer: customer segmentation (case study), 144
 - credit card issuers, dispute resolution case study, 251
 - credit origination case study (European banking), 302-303
 - credit processing case study, 141
 - CRISP-DM (Cross-Industry Standard Process for Data Mining), 162
 - cultural resistance to models, 266
 - customer (associate) centered systems, 26-27
 - customer data integration (CDI), 336
 - customer experience, improving, 79-82, 85
 - customers, customer interests and social media, 339-340
 - cycle of EDM, 367-368
-
- D
-
- data
 - analytics. See analytics
 - categories, 129
 - event-based versus stored, 153
 - integration, 130
 - internal versus external, 153
 - problems with, 103
 - data warehouse, 107
 - data warehousing, 107-110
 - reporting gap, 103-106
 - quality, 130

- relational versus nonrelational, 153
- requirements for analytic insight, 132
- requirements for decision making, 130
- in rule development process, 206
- structured versus unstructured, 152-153
- utilitizing, 34
- data and analytic models. See analytics
- data infrastructure, 317
- data integration
 - agility, 338
 - CDI (customer data integration), 336
 - EAI (enterprise application integration), 336
 - EII (enterprise information integration), 335
 - latency, 337
 - MDM (master data management), 336
- data mapping, 322
- data marts, 163
- data mining, 112, 134, 149-152
 - analytic modelers, 155
 - techniques, 155-157
- data mining and analysis in model development process, 174
- data preparation in model development process, 172-173
- data preparation tools, 166-167
- data quality, 270
- data readiness, 236-239
- data requirements determination in model development process, 172
- data sets for analytics, 167
- data warehouses, 107, 164
- data warehousing, 107-110
- death benefits case study, 54
- decision agility, 335
- decision analysis, 230-231
- decision audits, 382-384
- decision design tools, business rules management technology, 197-198
- decision flows, 182
- decision latency, 337
- decision management, 35-36
- decision models, 142-143, 222
- decision service hubs, 304-305, 308-309
- decision service providers (DSPs), 356
- decision services, 127-129, 190, 271
 - additive nature of, 323
 - data mapping, 322
 - deployment process, 323-324
 - QA (quality assurance) testing, 324
 - designing, 254
 - finding, 357
 - integration, 324-325
 - live updates, 322
 - overview, 321
 - in SDLC (software development life cycle), 357
- decision support, 11
- decision support systems (DSSs), 104-105
- decision tables, 186
- decision trees, 186-187, 280
- decision yield, 96-100, 248
 - agility, 375
 - applying to planning, 381
 - calculating, 379
 - competitive analysis, 379-381
 - consistency, 374
 - cost, 375
 - decision audits, 382-384
 - evaluation of specific opportunities, 386-388
 - graphing, 379-381
 - optimization of decision performance over time, 384-385
 - overview, 46, 373-376
 - precision, 374
 - questions to assess decision performance, 376-379
 - speed, 375
- decisions. See also decision services; operational decisions
 - definition of, 42, 50
 - local decision management
 - analyzing existing rules, 277-278
 - calculating ROI, 284
 - champion/challenger approach, 284-286
 - decision trees, 280
 - developing model-dependent rules, 283
 - finding suitable projects, 274-275
 - integrating rules and analytics, 274
 - mining data for rules, 279
 - overview, 273
 - segmenting populations before scoring, 282-283
 - manual decision making, problems with, 49
 - proactive decision identification, 290
 - strategic decisions, 48
 - tactical decisions, 48
- declarative syntax, business rules, 181
- decomposition of applications, EMD and, 329-330
- default decisions, 53
- demonstrating compliance, 31-32
- deploying
 - business rules, 138
 - decision services, 323-324
 - QA (quality assurance) testing, 324
 - rules, 256
- deployment, 143-144
 - of business rules, 210-211
 - deployment infrastructure, 245
 - standard deployment infrastructure, 289
 - standard rule management infrastructure, 289
- deployment management, business rules management technology, 203
- descriptive analytics, 132
- design, experimental design, 217-219, 230
- design tools, business rules management technology, 197-198
- designing
 - decision services, 254
 - repository, 268-270
- developers, 322

development methodology, 260, 271
directed knowledge discovery, 152 directed modeling techniques, 157 dispute resolution case study (credit card issuer), 251
dividing organizations, 375-376 drive basket size and cross-category sales (case
study), 80
Drucker, Peter, 14 DSPs (decision service providers), 356
DSSs (decision support systems),
104-105

E

EAI (enterprise application
integration), 336

EDAs (event-driven architectures), 351-353

editing business rules, 185

EDM (enterprise decision
management), 3, 39, 367

adapting SDLC (software development life cycle) to, 357

adaptive control, 360

analytics, 359-360

decision services, 357

rules, 358

adaptive control, 140-142, 213, 246

architectural overview, 213-215

business simulation, 225, 232-234

business user tools, 228

champion/challenger
approach, 140-142, 216, 229-230

decision analysis, 230-231
decision models,
142-143, 222

efficient frontier, 222-224
experimental design, 217-219, 230

inline solvers, 226

linear and nonlinear programming, 227

modeling tools, 225-226

optimization engines, 226

optimization model

design, 231

optimization techniques, 219-221

process, 229-234

production environment, 227-228

simulation/testing environment, 228

adopting. See adopting EDM advantages of, 368

agile approaches
adaptive control, 366

analytics, 365

rules, 363-365

analytic modeling, 245

analytics. See analytics and application decomposition, 329-330

appropriateness of, 61-62 automation and improvement, 45

barriers to adoption, 370

benefits of, 66

channel consistency,
344-345

IT requirements, managing, 343-344

maintenance, reducing, 340-341

multiplatform consistency, 345-346

and BPMs (business process management systems), 330-335

business rules, 135-139

business rules

management, 245

case studies. See also

case studies

auto manufacturer, 183

credit card issuer, 159

electronic commerce solutions provider, 158-159

European tax authority, 196

expanding Asian bank, 170

life insurance company:

death benefits, 54

mall-based retailer, 151

pharmacy benefits

manager, 201

robotics, 371

SmartEnough Logistics

sample case study, 120-123

telecommunications

network configuration, 67

truck manufacturer, 179

TV network, 188-189

U.S. consumer

magazine, 207

U.S. retail bank, 223-224

commodity enterprise

applications, 346-348

cost reductions, 65

activities eliminated, 68-69

data not purchased, 69

finest not paid, 69-70

fraud avoided, 72

opportunity costs, 74-76

time not spent, 65-68

costs, 93-96

CPM (corporate performance
management), 355-357

customer interaction, 339-340 cycle, 367-368

data integration

agility, 338

CDI (customer data
integration), 336

EAI (enterprise application
integration), 336

EII (enterprise information integration), 335

latency, 337

MDM (master data
management), 336

data. See data

decision services, 127-129

additive nature of, 323

data mapping, 322

deployment process,
323-324

integration, 324-325

live updates, 322

overview, 321

decision yield, 96-100, 248

overview, 46

definition of, 41-42

deployment, 143-144

deployment infrastructure, 245

DSPs (decision service providers), 356

EDAs (event-driven

architectures), 351, 353

- EUP (Enterprise Unified Process), 360
 - extending
 - automated modification of decisions, 315
 - independent agents, 316
 - integrated decision models, 313-314
 - overview, 313
 - text analytics, 315
 - time-sequenced decisions, 314
 - hidden decisions
 - conflicting decisions, 55
 - default decisions, 53
 - definition of, 52
 - finding, 56-58
 - lack of decisions, 55
 - long-term decisions, 53
 - manual decisions, 52-53
 - micro decisions, 52
 - missing decisions, 55
 - outside decisions, 56
 - override decisions, 55
 - implementing, 125-126
 - IT architecture
 - data infrastructure, 317
 - operational
 - infrastructure, 317
 - optimistic/pessimistic views of, 318-321
 - overview, 317
 - key features, 46-47
 - legacy modernization, 128
 - MDEs (model-driven engineering), 353-354
 - methodology, 248
 - mobile technology, 350
 - need for, 368-369
 - operational decisions, 48-50
 - compliance, 51
 - definition of, 45-46
 - latency, 50
 - personalized interactions, 51
 - risk management, 51
 - self-service interactions, 51
 - straight-through processing, 51
 - unattended decisions, 51
 - variability, 51
 - volume, 50
 - optimization, 262
 - optimization/simulation, 246
 - organizational change, 246
 - overview, 39
 - power of, 367
 - process, 40-41
 - readiness for. See readiness assessment
 - real-time decisions, 47
 - revenue growth, 76
 - better customer experience, 79-82, 85
 - better targeting, 76
 - more marketing opportunities, 79
 - no comparison shopping, 79
 - risks, 62
 - ROI, 61-64
 - RUP (Rational Unified Process), 360-362
 - analytics, 362
 - rules, 361-362
 - self-service applications, 349-350
 - smart outsourcing, 354
 - and SOA (service-oriented architecture), 326-329
 - steps of, 125-126
 - strategic control, 82
 - knowledge retention, 93
 - resource scalability and focus, 82-86
 - risk management, 90-93
 - strategic alignment, 88-90
 - strategic decisions, 48
 - systematic approach, 45
 - tactical decisions, 48
 - taking for granted, 74
 - TCO (total cost of ownership), 61
 - transaction-centered processes, 336
 - value of, 59-61
- EDM wiki, 175, 211, 234, 244, 366, 388
- efficient frontier, 222-224
- EII (enterprise information integration), 335
- electronic commerce solutions
 - provider case study, 158-159
- enterprise application integration (EAI), 336
- enterprise decision management. See EDM
- enterprise information integration (EII), 335
- enterprise policy hubs, 304
- enterprise repository, 288
- Enterprise Unified Process (EUP), 360
- environments
 - production environment, 227-228
 - simulation/testing environment, 228
- EUP (Enterprise Unified Process), 360
- European banking
 - Basel II compliance case study, 306-307
 - collections and recovery case study, 87
 - credit origination case study, 302-303
 - risk management and compliance case study, 43-44
- European credit card issuer:
 - customer segmentation (case study), 144
- European health insurance, claims handling case study, 332
- European tax authority case study, 196
- evaluation metrics. See decision yield
- evaluation of specific opportunities, 386-388
- event-based data, stored data versus, 153
- event-driven architectures (EDAs), 351-353
- execution of business rules, 187-190
 - backward-chaining, 190
 - inferencing, 189
 - rule sets, 184-185
 - metaphors for, 186-187
 - sequential execution, 189
- expanding Asian bank case study, 170

- expansion
- broadening analytic base
 - calculating ROI, 299
 - formalizing trade-off approach, 297-298
 - identifying model potential, 297
 - increasing model iteration/development speed, 297
 - optimization and simulation, 298-299
 - overview, 295
- enterprise repository, 288
- managing scenarios
- monitoring processes, 300
 - overview, 300
 - ROI, 301
 - scenario-planning processes, 300
 - strategic planning processes, 301
 - what-if scenarios, 300
- overlapping/adjacent problems, solving
- calculating ROI, 294-295
 - managing change, 294
 - overview, 291
 - reusing rules, 293-294
- overview, 287
- proactive decision
- identification, 290
- ROI, 290-291
- SmartEnough Logistics
- example, 312
- standard deployment
- infrastructure, 289
- standard rule management
- infrastructure, 289
- standardized tools and approaches, 289-290
- experimental design, 217-219, 230
- expert systems, 115
- extended enterprise support, 27, 30-31
- extending EDM
- automated modification of decisions, 315
 - independent agents, 316
 - integrated decision models, 313-314
 - overview, 313
- text analytics, 315
- time-sequenced decisions, 314
- external data, internal versus, 153
-
- F
-
- failure of current system approaches, 32-35
- Fair Isaac, xxii, 3
- field representative management case study, 342
- finding
- decision services, 357
 - hidden decisions, 56-58
- finer, eliminating, 69-70
- first projects, identifying, 250-253, 260-262
- formalizing trade-off approach, 297-298
- fourth-generation languages (4GLs), 104, 116
- fraud, avoiding, 72
- freight management case study, 355
- Friedman, Thomas, 30
-
- G
-
- Gartner Group Inc., definition of agility, 23
- Gates, Bill, 337
- genetic algorithms, 157
- Gladwell, Malcolm, 21, 24
- global logistics company, freight management case study, 355
- governance, 210
- government department work permits case study, 137
- government ship inspection case study, 351
- graphing, decision yield, 379-381
- growth of revenue. See revenue growth
-
- H
-
- Hagel, John, 85
- hardware suppliers, preventative maintenance case study, 83-84
- health insurance
- claims fraud case study, 75
 - claims handling case study, 332
- hidden decisions
- conflicting decisions, 55
 - default decisions, 53
 - definition of, 52
 - finding, 56-58
 - lack of decisions, 55
 - long-term decisions, 53
 - manual decisions, 52-53
 - micro decisions, 52
 - missing decisions, 55
 - outside decisions, 56
 - override decisions, 55
- high-performance execution, 21-22
- high-technology manufacturing quality case study, 139
- historical data, 172
- history of IT, 101-103
- 4GLs (fourth-generation languages), 116
 - AI (artificial intelligence), 114-116
 - BPM (business process management) systems, 118
 - business intelligence, 110-111
 - business rules, 116-117
 - commercial software packages, 117-118
 - data mining, 112
 - data warehousing, 107-108, 110
 - legacy code, 113-114
 - operational business intelligence, 111-112
 - operations research, 112
 - predictive reporting, 112
 - problems with data, 103
 - program inefficiency, 113
 - reporting gap, 103-106
 - SmartEnough Logistics sample case study, 120-123
- hospital care case study (community healthcare network), 253
- hospitals, bad debt management case study, 292-293
- human latency, 24
- hypothesis testing, 152
-
- I
-
- implementing EDM, 125-126
- improvements, as corporate assets, 20

- independent agents, 316
 inferencing of business rules, 189 information technology. See IT information warehousing, 107-110
 inline solvers, 226
 insurance European health insurance, claims handling case
 study, 332
 health insurance claims fraud
 case study, 75
 life insurance, regulatory compliance case study, 73 multi-line insurer: international mid-market trade credit (case study), 98 personal lines insurance
 underwriting system,
 71-72
 U.S. property and casualty insurance, auto insurance
 underwriting case study, 276-277
 integrated decision models, 313-314
 integrating decision services, 324-325
 integration, 270
 agility, 338
 CDI (customer data
 integration), 336 EAI (enterprise application
 integration), 336 EII (enterprise information integration), 335
 integration points,
 identifying, 262
 integrating rules and
 analytics, 274
 latency, 337
 MDM (master data
 management), 336
 integration of data, 130
 integration points,
 identifying, 262
 internal data, external data versus, 153
 internal promotion, 272
 international mid-market trade credit case study (multi-line insurance), 98
 intranets, 119
 IT (information technology), 101.
 See also decision services architecture
 data infrastructure, 317
 operational infrastructure, 317
 optimistic/pessimistic views of, 318-321
 overview, 317
 channel consistency, 344-345
 developers, 322
 development methodology, 271 history of, 101-103 4GLs (fourth-generation languages), 116
 AI (artificial intelligence), 114-116
 BPM (business process management) systems, 118
 business intelligence, 110-111
 business rules, 116-117
 commercial software packages, 117-118
 data mining, 112
 data warehousing, 107-110
 legacy code, 113-114 operating research, 112 operational business
 intelligence, 111-112
 predictive reporting, 112
 problems with data, 103
 program inefficiency, 113
 reporting gap, 103-106
 SmartEnough Logistics sample case study, 120-123 knowledge management, 120
 maintenance, reducing, 340-341
 multiplatform consistency, 345-346 procedure manuals and intranets, 119
 requirements, managing, 343-344
 self-service applications, 349-350
 training and adoption lag, 119
 IT and business and collaboration readiness, 236-237
 IT architecture, 35
-
- J–K
-
- JSR 73 (Java API), 162-163
 JSR 94 standard, 193
 K-Means algorithm, 157 KDD (knowledge discovery in databases). See data mining knowledge discovery, 152 knowledge management, 120, 208
 knowledge retention, 93
 Kohonen networks, 156
-
- L
-
- lack of decisions, 55
 latency, 337
 latency of operational decisions, 50
 learning capability of smart enough systems, 24-25
 legacy code, 113-114
 legacy modernization, 128
 life insurance death benefits case study, 54 regulatory compliance case
 study, 73
 lift, 159-160
 linear programming (LP), 227 linear regression, 155 link analysis, 156
 live updates, 322
 local decision management
 analyzing existing rules, 277-278
 calculating ROI, 284
 champion/challenger
 approach, 284-286
 calculating ROI for, 286 defining champions/challengers, 284 reporting differences, 285 splitting transactions at runtime, 284-285
 decision trees, 280 developing model-dependent
 rules, 283
 finding suitable projects, 274-275
 integrating rules and
 analytics, 274
 mining data for rules, 279

overview, 273
 segmenting populations before scoring, 282-283 logistic regression, 155 long tail, 77-78
 long-term decisions, 53
 loose coupling, 27, 30-31
 Lotus 1-2-3, 105 loyalty program management case
 study, 257
 LP (linear programming), 227

M magazine case study, 207 maintaining rules, 256 maintenance

 of business rules, 209-210
 defined, 210
 rules, 358
 maintenance, reducing, 340-341 mall-based retailer case study, 151 management. See also EDM (enterprise decision management); local decision
 management
 BRMS (business rules
 management system), 138
 of corporate assets, 19 decision management, 35-36
 defined, 210
 definition of, 42
 risk management, 51
 rules, 245
 of scenarios monitoring processes, 300
 overview, 300
 ROI, 301
 scenario-planning processes, 300 strategic planning processes, 301
 what-if scenarios, 300
 management focus on operations, assessing readiness for, 243-244 management technology, for analytics, 163
 automated tuning, 168-169
 BI/PM infrastructure (business
 intelligence and performance management), 165 content management systems, 165
 data preparation tools, 166-167
 data warehouses, 164
 model deployment, 168
 modeling tools, 167-168
 operational data store (ODS), 164
 operational databases, 164
 repositories, 166
 search engines, 165
 stream-processing engines, 166 manifesto, 5-8 competitive advance of operational decisions, 7-8 importance of operational decisions, 5-6
 operational decision automation, 6-7
 manual decision making,
 problems with, 49
 manual decisions, 52-53
 mapping data, 322 marketing opportunities, increasing, 79 master data management (MDM), 336 mathematical representation, in predictive analytics, 154
 MDEs (model-driven engineering), 353-354 MDM (master data
 management), 336 measuring ROI (Return on Investment). See decision yield metadata, business rules and, 191-192
 methodology
 EDM, 248
 development methodology, 260, 271
 micro decisions, 52 mining data. See data mining mining data for rules, 279
 missing decisions, 55
 mobile technology, 350
 model deployment, 168
 in model development process, 174 model development in model development process, 174
 model development process
 (analytics), 170-171
 data mining and analysis, 174
 data preparation, 172-173
 data requirements determination, 172
 model deployment, 174
 model development, 174
 model tuning, 175
 model validation, 174
 outcome determination, 171 model tuning in model development process, 175 model validation in model development process, 174 model-driven design, business rules and, 192-193 model-driven engineering (MDEs), 353-354
 modeling tools, 167-168, 225-226
 models commercial models, 269
 cultural resistance to, 266 decision models, 142-143, 222
 deploying, 264-266 developing, 263 focus on deployment, 290 identifying model
 potential, 297
 increasing model iteration/
 development speed, 297
 integrated decision models, 313-314
 MDEs (model-driven engineering), 353-354
 modernizing legacy applications, 128
 monitoring processes, 300
 multi-line insurer: international mid-market trade credit (case study), 98
 multiplatform consistency, 345-346

N national bank credit processing

 case study, 141
 neural networks, 156 NLP (nonlinear programming), 227 non-filers case study (U.S. tax authority), 338

non-inferencing, 189
 nonlinear programming (NLP), 227 non-relational data, relational versus, 153

O

ODS (operational data store), 164
 OMG (Object Management Group), 192-194
 ontologies, 191
 operational business intelligence, 111-112 operational characteristics of smart enough systems, 21-22
 operational data store (ODS), 164
 operational databases, 164
 operational decisions, 48-50. See also decision services automating, 6-7
 business agility, 12 changing nature of, 140 characteristics of, 18-19
 agility, 18
 consistency, 18 cost-effectiveness, 19 precision, 18
 speed, 18
 closed-loop decision making, 20 competitive advantage of, 7-8 compliance, 51
 as corporate assets, 17-20 data requirements for, 130
 decision management, 35-36
 decision services, 127-129
 decision support, 11
 definition of, 45-46
 hidden decisions
 conflicting decisions, 55
 default decisions, 53
 definition of, 52
 finding, 56-58
 lack of decisions, 55
 long-term decisions, 53
 manual decisions, 52-53
 micro decisions, 52
 missing decisions, 55
 outside decisions, 56
 override decisions, 55

importance of, 5-6, 9, 11
 latency, 50
 local decision management
 analyzing existing rules, 277-278
 calculating ROI, 284
 champion/challenger
 approach, 284-286
 decision trees, 280
 developing model-dependent rules, 283 finding suitable projects, 274-275
 integrating rules and
 analytics, 274
 mining data for rules, 279
 overview, 273
 segmenting populations before scoring, 282-283
 manual decision making,
 problems with, 49
 personalized interactions, 51 pressure on decisions, 16-17 proactive decision identification, 290
 real-time decisions, 47
 risk management, 51
 self-service interactions, 51 straight-through processing, 51 strategy, 11-14
 unattended decisions, 51
 value and volume of, 14-16 variability, 51
 volume, 50
 operational infrastructure, 317 operations research (OR), 112, 221
 Opinion Research Corporation, survey on operational decisions, 10 opportunities, evaluating, 386-388 opportunity costs, reducing, 74-76
 optimization, 246, 262
 business simulation, 225, 232-234
 compared to rules, 220-221
 constraints, 220
 decision models, 222
 definition of, 215
 efficient frontier, 222, 224
 inline solvers, 226

linear and nonlinear
 programming, 227
 optimization engines, 226
 optimization models, 219, 231
 OR (operations research), 221
 overview, 219-220
 for rules, 279 trade-off approach, 298-299
 optimization engines, 226
 optimizing decision performance over time, 384-385
 OR (operations research), 221
 organizational change, 246
 organizational divisions, 375-376 outcome determination, in model development process, 171
 outside decisions, 56
 outsourcing, 354 overlapping/adjacent problems, solving
 calculating ROI, 294-295
 managing change, 294
 overview, 291
 reusing rules, 293-294
 override decisions, 55

P

pair programming, 365 patterns, in business rules, 184 performance issues, business
 rules, 202
 Performance Management systems, 13
 performance testing, business
 rules, 206
 performance variables, 279 performance, optimizing decision performance over time, 384-385
 personal lines insurance
 underwriting system
 (case study), 71-72
 personalized interactions, 51 pharmacy benefits manager case
 study, 201 phases of EDM adoption. See adopting EDM
 piecemeal approach to EDM adoption analytic projects, 260
 calculating ROI, 267-268
 deploying model, 264-266
 developing model, 263

- identifying first projects, 260-262
 - identifying integration points, 262
 - best practices, 271-272
 - calculating ROI, 257-259
 - capturing rules, 254-255
 - data quality and integration, 270
 - decision services, 271
 - deploying and maintaining rules, 256
 - designing decision service, 254
 - designing repository, 268-270
 - development methodology, 271
 - identifying first projects, 250-253
 - internal promotion, 272
 - overview, 248-249
 - portfolio assessment, 250
 - SmartEnough Logistics example, 310-311
 - tools, 270
 - PIM (platform-independent model), 192
 - planning, applying decision yield to, 381
 - platform-specific model (PSM), 192
 - PMML (Predictive Modeling Markup Language), 162
 - policy, 148
 - policy manuals in rule development process, 205
 - Porter, Dr. Michael, 11
 - portfolio assessment, 250
 - precision, 374
 - precision of operational decisions, 18
 - predictive analytics, 133-135, 149-152
 - characteristics of, 154-155
 - lift, 159-160
 - scorecards, 160-161
 - standards, 162-163
 - variables, 162
 - Predictive Modeling Markup Language (PMML), 162
 - predictive reporting, 112, 265
 - pressure on operational decisions, 16-17
 - preventative maintenance
 - case study (hardware supplier), 83-84
 - PricewaterhouseCoopers Barometer, survey of corporate data, 24
 - proactive decision identification, 290
 - procedure manuals, 119
 - process agility, 335
 - production environment, 227-228
 - Production Rules Representation (PRR) standard, 193
 - programs
 - artificial intelligence (AI), 114-116
 - commercial packages, 117-118
 - inefficiency of, 113
 - legacy code, 113-114
 - projects
 - analytic projects, 260
 - identifying first projects, 260-262
 - first projects, identifying, 250-253
 - stand-alone projects, 291
 - PRR (Production Rules Representation) standard, 193
 - PSM (platform-specific model), 192
-
- Q
- QA (quality assurance) testing, decision services, 324
 - quality of data, 130
 - quantification of outcome in predictive analytics, 154
 - questions to assess decision performance, 376-379
-
- R
- Rational Unified Process (RUP), 360-362
 - analytics, 362
 - rules, 361-362
 - readiness assessment
 - analytic understanding readiness, 239-240
 - business and IT collaboration readiness, 236-237
 - data readiness, 237-239
 - management focus on operations readiness, 243-244
 - overview, 235
 - SmartEnough Logistics example, 309-310
 - willingness to change readiness, 240-242
 - real-time decisions, 47
 - real-time performance, 22
 - referential integrity testing, business rules, 209
 - referrals, improving, 65
 - regression, 155
 - regulations in rule development process, 204
 - regulatory compliance case study (life insurance), 73
 - relational data, non-relational data versus, 153
 - reporting, predictive reporting, 265
 - reporting differences (champion/challenger approach), 285
 - reporting gap, 103-106
 - repositories, 166
 - business rules management technology, 194-197
 - designing, 268-270
 - enterprise repository, 288
 - requirements
 - compared to rules, 255
 - definition of, 255
 - managing, 343-344
 - resisting commoditization, 347
 - resource scalability and focus, 82-86
 - retail bank case study, 223-224
 - retailer case study, 151
 - return on investment. See ROI
 - reusability of corporate assets, 20
 - reusing rules, 293-294
 - revenue growth, 76
 - better customer experience, 79-82, 85
 - better targeting, 76
 - more marketing opportunities, 79
 - no comparison shopping, 79
 - risk management, 51, 90-93
 - risk management and compliance (case study), 43-44
 - risks of EDM (enterprise decision management), 62

- robotics case study, 371
 - Rohde, Frank, 96, 373
 - ROI (return on investment)
 - calculating
 - for broadening analytic base, 299
 - for champion/challenger approach, 286
 - for enterprise decision-making backbones, 290-291
 - for first analytic projects, 267-268
 - local decision management, 284
 - for managing scenarios, 301
 - for overlapping and adjacent problems, 294-295
 - rules-based approach, 257-259
 - decision yield
 - agility, 375
 - applying to planning, 381
 - calculating yield, 379
 - competitive analysis, 379-381
 - consistency, 374
 - cost, 375
 - decision audits, 382-384
 - evaluation of specific opportunities, 386-388
 - graphing, 379, 381
 - optimization of decision performance over time, 384-385
 - overview, 373-376
 - precision, 374
 - questions to assess decision performance, 376-379
 - speed, 375
 - ROI for EDM (enterprise decision management), 61-64
 - cost reductions, 65
 - activities eliminated, 68-69
 - data not purchased, 69
 - finest not paid, 69-70
 - fraud avoided, 72
 - opportunity costs, 74-76
 - time not spent, 65-68
 - costs of EDM, 93-96
 - revenue growth, 76
 - better customer experience, 79-82, 85
 - simulations, 232
 - standard rule management infrastructure, 289
 - templates, 255
 - rules service, 190
 - RUP (Rational Unified Process), 360-362
 - analytics, 362
 - rules, 361-362
-
- S
- SaaS (software as a service), DSPs (decision service providers), 356
 - sales, creating
 - better customer experience, 79-82, 85
 - better targeting, 76
 - more marketing opportunities, 79
 - no comparison shopping, 79
 - SBVR (Semantics of Business Vocabularies and Rules), 194
 - scalability issues, business rules, 202
 - scenario management
 - monitoring processes, 300
 - overview, 300
 - ROI, 301
 - scenario-planning processes, 300
 - strategic planning processes, 301
 - what-if scenarios, 300
 - scorecards, 160-161
 - SDLC (software development life cycle), adapting to EDM, 357
 - adaptive control, 360
 - analytics, 359-360
 - decision services, 357
 - rules, 358
 - search engines, 165
 - segment profiling, 277
 - segmenting populations before scoring, 282-283
 - segments, 92
 - self-service, 51
 - self-service applications, 349-350
 - semantic technology, 191

- semantic Web, 190
 - link analysis and, 156
 - semantics, business rules and, 190-191
 - Semantics of Business Vocabularies and Rules (SBVR), 194
 - sequential execution of business rules, 189
 - service-oriented architecture (SOA), 29, 118, 198
 - and EDM, 326-329
 - services. See decision services
 - ship inspection case study, 351
 - simulation, 215, 246
 - trade-off approach, 298-299
 - simulation/testing
 - environment, 228
 - smart enough systems
 - characteristics of, 21, 59-61
 - agility, 22-23
 - customer (associate) centered, 26-27
 - demonstrable compliance, 31-32
 - extended enterprise support, 27, 30-31
 - high-performance execution, 21-22
 - learning capability, 24-25
 - real-time performance, 22
 - decision management, 35-36
 - definition of, 21
 - failure of current approaches to, 32-35
 - SmartEnough Logistics example, 36-38
 - Smart Enough Systems manifesto, 5-8
 - competitive advance of operational decisions, 7-8
 - importance of operational decisions, 5-6
 - operational decision automation, 6-7
 - smart outsourcing, 354
 - SmartEnough Logistics example, 36-38, 309
 - decision management, 311-312
 - EDM adoption, 312
 - expansion, 312
 - piecemeal approach, 310-311
 - readiness assessment, 309-310
 - SmartEnough Logistics sample case study, 120-123
 - SOA (service-oriented architecture), 29, 118, 198
 - and EDM, 326-329
 - software as a service (SaaS), DSPs (decision service providers), 356
 - software development life cycle. See SDLC
 - speed, 375
 - speed of operational decisions, 18
 - splitting transactions at runtime, 284-285
 - staffing reductions, 86
 - stand-alone projects, 291
 - standard deployment infrastructure, 289
 - standard rule management infrastructure, 289
 - standardized tools and approaches, 289-290
 - standards
 - analytics, 162-163
 - for business rules, 193-194
 - steady state
 - decision service hubs, 304-305, 308-309
 - enterprise policy hubs, 304
 - overview, 301, 304, 309
 - stored data, event-based
 - versus, 153
 - straight-through processing, 51
 - strategic alignment, 13, 88-90
 - strategic control, 82
 - knowledge retention, 93
 - resource scalability and focus, 82-86
 - risk management, 90-93
 - strategic alignment, 88-90
 - strategic decisions, 48
 - strategic nature of corporate assets, 19
 - strategic planning processes, 301
 - strategy, strategic nature of corporate assets, 19
 - strategy behind operational decisions, 11-14
 - stream-processing engines, 166
 - structured data, unstructured data versus, 152-153
 - supervised modeling
 - techniques, 157
 - supporting data, 172
 - swapset analysis, 277
 - systematic approach (EDM), 45
 - systems of record, 323
-
- ## T
-
- tactical decisions, 48
 - tax authority case study, 196
 - TCO (total cost of ownership) for EDM (enterprise decision management), 61
 - technology for business rules management, 194-195
 - business user rule maintenance applications, 198-200
 - decision design tools, 197-198
 - deployment management, 203
 - repositories, 194-197
 - rule templates, 200-202
 - telecommunications
 - network configuration case study, 67
 - self-repairing network case study, 352
 - templates (rules), 255
 - templates for business rules, 200-202
 - Teradata, survey on operational decisions, 10
 - test data in analytics, 167
 - testing
 - business rules, 206, 209
 - QA (quality assurance) testing, decision services, 324
 - simulation/testing environment, 228
 - text analytics, 315
 - time, cost reductions, 65-68
 - time-sequenced decisions, 314
 - tools
 - adopting, 270
 - modeling tools, 225-226
 - standardized tools, 289-290
 - trade-off approach, 297-298
 - training, analytic models, 159
 - training algorithms in predictive analytics, 154
 - training and adoption lag, 119
 - training data in analytics, 167 transaction-centered processes, 336

 transactional data, 172 transactions splitting at runtime, 284-285 transaction-centered processes, 336
 truck manufacturer case
 study, 179
 TV network case study, 188-189

U

U.S. consumer magazine case
 study, 207
 U.S. property and casualty insurance, auto insurance
 underwriting case study, 276-277
 U.S. retail bank case study, 223
 U.S. tax authority: non-filers case
 study, 338
 unattended decisions, 51
 understandability of business rules syntax, 181
 underwriting system case study, 71-72 undirected knowledge discovery, 152 undirected modeling techniques, 157
 universal decision engines, 304

unstructured data, structured versus, 152-153
 unsupervised modeling techniques, 157
 updates, live updates, 322 use cases, definition of, 255

V

validating business rules, 206, 209 validation data in analytics, 167 value of EDM (enterprise decision management), 59-61
 value of operational decisions, 14-16 variability of operational decisions, 51
 variables, 162
 performance variables, 279 vehicle registration fees case
 study, 128
 visibility of corporate assets, 20 volume of operational decisions,
 14-16, 50

W-Z

Web 2.0, 28-29
 what-if scenarios, 300
 white-box testing, business
 rules, 208
 willingness to change, assessing readiness for, 240-242
 work permits case study, 137