PAYING YOUR DUES: TRAINING

No WWE Superstar becomes a Legend overnight. It takes dedication to mastering the fundamentals of in-ring competition before you can start to assemble the string of victories required to attain legendary status. This chapter covers all of the moves and maneuvers you must learn to rise through the ranks of WWE's elite Superstars and become the greatest Legend of all time.

DIRECTIONAL NOTE

B and  $\bigcirc/\textcircled{B}$  are interchangeable for any of the following moves and maneuvers. For simplicity's sake, only B is used in this chapter.

BASIC CONTROLS

The moves in this section can be performed in any match type. Practice them until they become second nature.

MOVEMENT

Moving around the ring (and in and out of it) is one of the most fundamental skills to master on your path to becoming a WWE Legend. All movement is performed with  $\boldsymbol{e}$  or  $\bigcirc/\boldsymbol{E}$ , often accompanied by the Action button ( $\boldsymbol{G}$  for 360,  $\boldsymbol{\odot}$  for PS3).

STRIKES

Strikes are quick, forceful attacks like punches and kicks. They require little to no set-up and can be unleashed without warning, but they don't inflict as much damage as grapples.

All strike commands are based off of the Strike button (③ for 360, • for PS3). Because the controls for many of these moves are so similar, pay careful attention to the positioning of your Legend and his opponent.

LEGEND KILLEB MODE

Legend Killer Mode gives you the opportunity to create a Legend from nothing and pit him against biggest names to be crowned the greatest Legend of all time at WrestleMania. To play Legend Killer Mode, you must have a Created Legend or import a Created Superstar from SmackDown vs. Raw 2009.

There are six tiers of Legends to prove yourself against, and each tier is a gauntlet of opponents who you must defeat in a single setting. If you lose a match, you can choose to have a rematch and continue through the tier. If you choose to quit, you must start the tier all over again when you resume. Each tier must be unlocked before you can attempt to conquer it.

Defeating every Legend in a tier completes the tier and may unlock an additional tier in Legend Killer Mode. It also awards a gold medal for the Hall of Fame, which unlocks hidden match types, alternate costumes, and movies for the WrestleMania Tour Mode Movie Theater.
