

“ The voyage of discovery is not in seeking new landscapes but in having new eyes. — Marcel Proust

The hardest part of the journey is the first step. — Anonymous

To teach is to learn twice. — Joseph Joubert

To look is one thing. To see what you look at is another. To understand what you see is a third. To learn from what you understand is still something else. But to act on what you learn is all that really matters. — Talmud

The art of teaching is the art of assisting discovery. — Mark Von Doren

As to methods there may be millions and then some, but principles are few. The man who grasps principles can successfully select his own methods. The man who tries methods, ignoring principles, is sure to have trouble.

— Ralph Waldo Emerson

If you do not go within, you go without. — Neale Donald Walsch

I saw an angel in the stone and carved it to set it free.

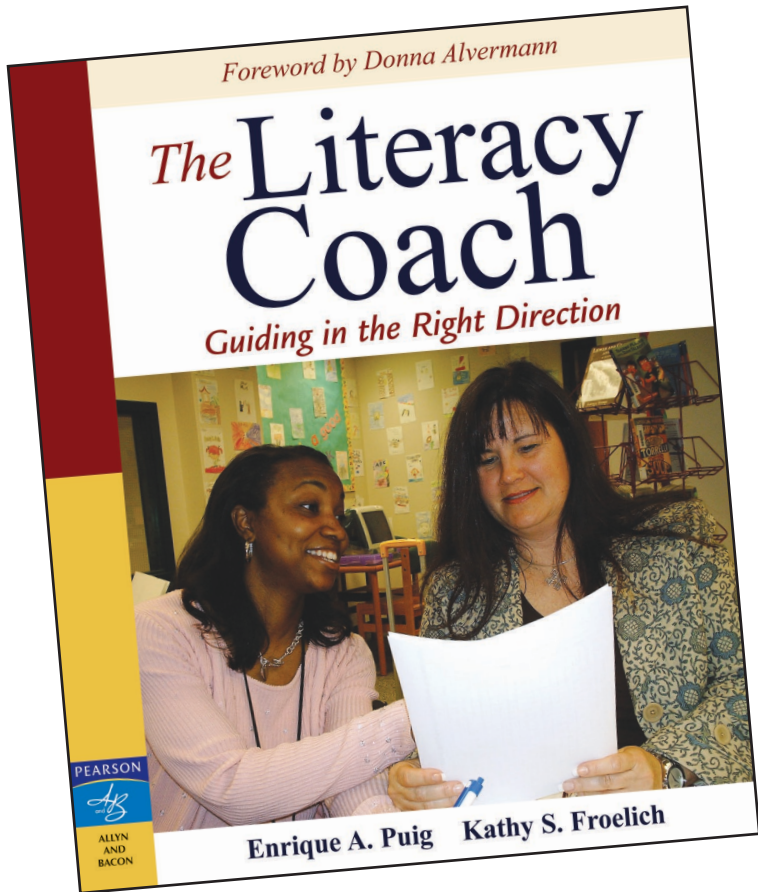

— Michaelangelo

Learning never exhausts the mind.

— Leonardo Da Vinci
