

Index

A

- Acceptance testing, 168
- Acceptance testing reruns, 168
- Administrative information section, 18–19, 235–246
- Administrative section, 18, 61
 - administrative information, 235–246
 - alternative proposals, 85, 244
 - award notification, 240
 - BAFOs (best and final offers), 84
 - company confidential information, 66
 - complete solutions, 245
 - compliance matrix, 85–86
 - confidential information, 245
 - contacts, 69–71, 236
 - corporate facilities tour, 238
 - cover letter, 80
 - definition of requirements, 87–88
 - demonstrations, 240, 243
 - designation of requirements, 246
 - elements, 61, 62–86
 - errors or omissions in proposals, 89, 241
 - evaluation criteria, 241
 - executive summary, 80–82
 - informational paragraphs, 86–94
 - intent to bid, 66–67, 237
 - late submission, 244
 - LTD (live test demonstration), 240
 - NDA (non-disclosure agreement), 239
 - notifying winning and losing suppliers, 93
 - number of proposals, 244
 - offer expiration date, 246
 - oral presentations, 239–240
 - ownership of materials, 241
 - post-award debriefing, 246
 - pre-proposal conference, 75–77
 - press releases, 239
 - pricing, 242
 - pricing section, 82–84
 - primary supplier, 245
 - product demonstrations, 91–93
 - production environment for hardware and software products, 88
 - project management, 242
 - proposal costs and expenses, 91, 241
 - proposal debriefing, 93–94
 - proposal evaluation criteria, 89–91
 - proposal format, 77–79, 243–244
 - proposal preparation, 244–245
 - proprietary information, 67–68, 245
 - public disclosure, 239
 - questions and answers, 71–73, 237–238
 - reference library, 74–75, 239
 - references, 243
 - referrals, 239
 - rejection of proposals, 241
 - request for supplier information, 65–66
 - responding to supplier questions, 73–74
 - RFP amendments, 245
 - RFP overview, 62–65
 - RFP schedule, 75, 235–236
 - subcontracting, 68–69
 - submission of proposals, 237, 244
 - supplier and supplier reference information, 65–66
 - supplier confidential information, 68
 - supplier pre-proposal conference, 238
 - technical solution, 242
 - transmittal letter, 80
 - what should not appear in, 94–96
- Administrators, training, 189
- Agreements, 23–24
- Alternative proposals, 85, 244
- Appendices, 24
- Application customization, 189

Index

- Application software
 - development costs, 184
 - development environment, 184–185
 - different solutions, 183
 - pricing, 185
 - testing, 167
- Associated contract considerations, 203
- Audit trail, 33
- Award notification, 240
- B
- BAFOs (best and final offers), 31, 84
- Budgets, 2, 270
 - comparing RFP and evaluation criteria, 29
 - development, 53–55
 - ongoing yearly costs, 55–56
 - planning, 261–273
 - preliminary, 55
 - project acquisition, 54–55
 - projects, 53–54
 - software development and project management
 - costs, 55
 - support costs, 56
- Business
 - improvement goals, 135
 - operations, 42–43
 - processes and technical requirements, 153, 155
 - reasons, 127
- Business application requirements, 107–108
- Business system applications, 144–146
- Business-related goals and objectives, 76
- Buyers, definition of, 1
- Buying product, 143
- C
- Carnegie, Andrew, xix
- Carney, David J., xviii
- CFO (chief financial officer), 261–262
- Change documentation, 33–34
- Changes and final testing, 34
- CJA (cost justification analysis) process
 - current operations, 264–267
 - equipment pricing, 268
 - financial indicators, 268–270
 - measuring life-cycle benefits of system, 272
 - NPV (net present value), 269
 - payback period, 269
 - ROI (return on investment), 269
 - system sizing, 267
- Comments from suppliers, 174
- Communications requirements, 161
- Companies
 - confidential information, 66
 - overview of, 18
 - purchasing hardware, 180
 - research and development, 249
- Compliance matrix, 85–86, 289
- Confidential information, 245
- Constraining requirements, 138
- Consultants, 52
 - reasons for hiring, 142
 - request for, 143–144
- Consumables, 187
- Contact information, 236
- Contacts
 - administrative section, 69–71
 - information format, 70
 - suppliers, 69–71
- Contract T&Cs (terms and conditions), 201
- Contracts, 10–11, 23–24
 - importance of RFP, 32–35
 - information necessary to negotiate, 57
 - items needing budgeting, 94–95
 - language, 94
 - negotiating, 45, 57–59
 - proposals and, 10
 - sample of, 94
 - terms mixed with basic RFP instructions, 95–96
 - types, 201
- Contracts and license agreements section, 23–24, 200–203
- Corporate facilities tour, 238

- Cost
 - not specifically requested, 191
 - proposals, 241
 - training, 190
- Cost justification, 262–263
- COTS (commercial off-the-shelf software), 182
- Cover letter, 80
- Current business environment, 133–136
- Current operations, 264–267
- Current technical environment, 136–138
- Custom software development, 186
- Customer-Centered Products*, 104
- Customizing software application, 183
- Cutover, 173–174
- D
- Delivery, 166–167
- Demonstrations, 31, 221–222, 240, 243
 - evaluation, 226
 - explaining to suppliers, 93
 - LTD (live test demonstration), 92
 - paid limited functionality, 92
 - supplier-provided canned presentation, 91–92
 - working software or product, 92
- Departments receiving copy of RFP and winning proposal, 58
- Design, development and implementation, 164–165
- Detailed evaluations, 225
- Detail-level pricing description, 193–194
- Developing technical requirements, 124–133
- Development costs, 184
- Discounts, 197–198
- Disqualifying proposals, 251
- Documentation, 171–172
 - change, 33–34
 - electronic form, 172
 - maintaining good, 35
 - physical copies, 172
 - pricing, 190
 - requirements, 156–157
- Documenting
 - current business environment, 133–136
 - requirements, 130
- E
- Education, 257
- Effective Requirements Practices*, 101, 186
- Equipment installation planning, 160–161
- Equipment pricing, 268
- Errors or omissions in proposals, 89, 241
- Evaluating proposals, 30
- Evaluation criteria, 14–15, 29, 89–91, 209–211, 241
- Evaluation process
 - detailed evaluations, 225
 - preliminary evaluation, 222–224
 - second round of evaluations, 224–225
- Evaluation report, 230–232
- Evaluation section
 - demonstrations, 221–222
 - elements, 215–222
 - introduction, 216
 - management evaluation, 218–219
 - oral presentations, 221–222
 - price evaluation, 219–221
 - technical evaluation, 216–217
- Evaluation team, 207–209
 - agenda of items, 214
 - asking questions, 212
 - calendar of evaluation and award schedule, 214
 - detailed evaluations, 225
 - developing and maintaining online or physical library, 213
 - evaluation matrix, 214
 - good ideas in proposals, 215
 - keeping informed, 212
 - meetings with suppliers, 215
 - preliminary evaluation, 222–224
 - reference site visit, 214

Index

Evaluation team, continued

- requests for clarification, 213
- reviewing proposals, 213
- second round of evaluations, 224–225
- triggering other events, 214
- weighted factors, 214–215

Evaluations

- beginning process, 212–213
- considerations, 209–215
- criteria, 209–211
- demonstrations, 226
- developing scoring methodology, 226–230
- difficult criteria to objectively evaluate, 227–228
- evaluation team, 207–209
- forms, 58
- ground rules, 212
- guidelines, 205–207
- hot buttons, 211
- major sections scored in, 228
- presentations, 226
- pricing, 205–207
- reference checks, 226
- site visits, 226
- types of questions, 205
- value, 205–207
- weighted sections, 228–229

Executive summary, 80–82

- list of exceptions, 255
- master milestone schedule, 255
- price proposal, 255–256
- problematic areas, 255

F

- Facilities department, 58–59
- Facility upgrades, 161
- Farry, Kristin, 104–105
- FARs (Federal Acquisition Regulations), xix, 5
- Final testing and changes, 34
- Financial indicators, 268–270
- Fixed-price contract, 201–202
- FTEs (full-time equivalents), 271

H

- Hard dollar savings, 262–263
- Hardware
 - company purchasing, 180
 - current component configurations, 140
 - pricing section, 180–181
 - production environment, 88
 - proposing specifications and quantities required, 181
 - quantity differences, 181
 - requirements, 139–141
 - specifications, 140
 - type of differences, 181
- Help Desk, 140–141
- Hidden requirements, 105–106
- Highly confidential information, 66
- Hooks, Ivy, 104–105
- Hot buttons, 211

I

- Illustrating requirements, 131–133
- Information, highly confidential, 66
- Initial project planning schedule, 46–47
- Installation, 166–167
- Intangible benefits, 273
- Intent to bid, 66–67, 237
- International presence, 64
- Interviewing users, 129
- Investment analysis, 261–273
- IS (Information Systems), 43–44
- IT (Information Technology), 12, 13, 43–44, 104

J

- Jones, Capers, 34, 35

L

- Late submission, 244
- Life-cycle pricing, 196
- List of exceptions, 255
- Litigation and proposal, 33–34
- Lowball pricing, 184
- LTD (live test demonstration), 92, 240

M

Maintenance, 169–170, 256–257 agreement, 200–203
 fees, 198 payments, 200
 pricing, 188
 ROI (return on investment) analysis, 169
Maintenance contract, 200, 201
Management requirements section, 19–20
Management section, 149–151
 delivery, 166–167
 design, development and implementation, 164–165
 documentation, 171–172
 education, 257
 elements, 157–175
 evaluating, 218–219
 installation, 166–167
 maintenance, 256–257
 personnel responsibilities, 160–161
 pricing section, 179–180
 project change control, 165–166 project cutover, 173–174
 project management, 256
 project plan, 158–159
 project schedule, 159
 request for supplier information, 65–66
 roles and responsibilities, 164
 site preparation plan, 160–161
 staffing requirements, 161–163
 standards, 172–173
 supplier issues and concerns, 174–175
 system maintenance and support, 169–170
 testing, 167–169
 training, 170–171, 257
 writing requirements, 151–157
Management services, 187–188
Mandatory requirements, 15, 87
Marketing material volume, 78
Master milestone schedule, 255
Mastering the Requirements Process, 106

Measuring project results, 271–273
Minimal requirements, 100
Morgan, J. P., xix must, 108

N

Narrative description, 114–116
NDA (nondisclosure agreement), 66, 239, 275–281
Need, 127
Need statement, 125
Negotiating contract, 57–59
Nondisclosure agreements, 201
Nonrecurring costs, 196
Notice of intent to bid, 285–286
NPV (net present value), 261, 269
Number of proposals, 244
Numerical scoring, 227

O

Objectives, 127
Offer expiration date, 246
Onetime costs, 22–23
Ongoing yearly costs, 55–56
Operational concepts, 105–107
Operations, or system users, 13
Optional requirements, 15
Oral presentations, 221–222, 239–240
Organizing pricing section, 191–194
Outsourcing company, 142
Overall project requirements, 20
Overall system costs, 54–55
Ownership of materials, 241

P

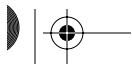

Paid limited functionality demonstrations, 92
Partnering, 186
Payback period, 269
Payment bonds, 201
Performance bonds, 201
Peripheral software, 141–142
Personnel responsibilities, 160–161

Index

- Personnel work areas, 161
- Planning phase, 13–14
- Poorly researched RFPs (request for proposals), 122
- Poorly written requirements, 124, 156–157
- Post-award debriefing, 246
- Post-RFP activities, 30–32
- Post-RFP planning considerations
 - negotiating contract, 57–59
 - project development and implementation, 56–57
- Potential project queue, 126
- PPM (principal period of maintenance), 152–153, 200
- Preliminary budget, 55
- Preliminary evaluation, 222–224
- Preliminary Evaluation Checklist, 291
- Pre-proposal conference, 75–77
- Pre-RFP activities, 24–25
- Pre-RFP planning considerations
 - budget development, 53–55
 - business operations, 42–43
 - developing project schedule, 46–51
 - initial project planning schedule, 46–47
 - IS (Information Systems), 43–44
 - IT (Information Technology), 43–44
 - procurement cycle, 47–48
 - project organization, 40–42
 - purchasing department, 44–46
 - supplier selection, 48–51
 - technology and supplier education, 51–52
- Presentations, 226, 239–240
- Press releases, 239
- Price proposal, 255–256
- Price volume, 78, 79
- Prices
 - discounts, 197–198
 - evaluating, 219–221
 - life-cycle pricing, 196
 - nonrecurring costs, 196
 - validating, 194–195
 - variations, 196–197
- Pricing, 23
 - administrative section, 242
 - application software, 185
 - associated contract considerations, 203
 - breaking down to components and tasks, 178
 - detail-level pricing description, 193–194
 - documentation, 190
 - equipment, 268
 - evaluation, 205–207
 - facilitating evaluation, 180
 - lowball, 184
 - maintenance contract, 200
 - reality of supplier pricing, 198
 - recurring costs, 195–196
 - software development effort, 185
 - summary-level pricing description, 193
 - warranty period, 200
 - without adequate detail, 191
 - Pricing section, 22–23, 82–84, 177, 248–249
 - application software, 183–185
 - breaking up into different products and services, 82
 - consumables, 187
 - contracts and license agreements section, 200–203
 - costs not specifically requested, 191
 - custom software development, 186
 - documentation, 190
 - elements, 178–191
 - equipment list, 181
 - fixed-price contract, 201–202
 - hardware, 180–181
 - maintenance, 188
 - maintenance agreement, 200–203
 - management section, 179–180
 - management services, 187–188
 - organizing, 191–194
 - payment terms, 199
 - project implementation, 187–188
 - purchase contract, 200–203
 - request for supplier information, 65–66
 - software license agreement, 200–203
 - structure and requirements, 178
 - support, 188
 - system software, 182
 - technical section, 179
 - T&M (time and materials) contract, 202–203

- training, 188–190
- validating prices, 194–195
- Primary supplier, 245
- Printing proposals, 252
- Problematic areas, 255
- Problems
 - baseline documentation and, 33
 - becoming an issue, 35
 - clear and agreed-upon statement, 29
 - party responsible for, 33
 - projects, 33
 - solving, 76
 - statement of, 18, 63–64
 - summarizing, 19
- Procurement
 - cycle, 47–48
 - rules for, 18
- Procurement personnel (purchasing office), 13
- Production environment for hardware and software products, 88
- Products
 - costs and expenses, 91
 - demonstrations, 91–93
 - dependent on other products, 83–84
 - existence of, 101
 - new and unproven, 88
 - purchasing, 143
- Project management, 55, 242, 256
- Project overview section, 18–19
- Project plan, 19–20, 158–159, 218
- Project team
 - equipment list, 55
 - IT (information technology), 13
 - operations, or system users, 13
 - overall system costs, 54–55
 - procurement personnel (purchasing office), 13
 - project acquisition budget, 54–55
 - roles and responsibilities, 164
 - staffing, 163
- Projects
 - acquisition budget, 54–55
 - amount of time needed, 49
 - analyzing from operations perspective, 153
 - budgets, 2
 - business reasons, 127
 - buying product, 143
 - change control, 165–166
 - changes in plans, 56–57
 - completion date, 159
 - consultants, 142
 - cost justification, 262–263
 - cutover, 48–49, 173–174
 - delivery, 166–167
 - detailed description, 164–165
 - developing schedule, 46–51
 - development, 12–14
 - development and implementation, 56–57
 - early planning stages, 8
 - essential components, 11
 - functional organization chart, 40–42
 - goals, 135–136
 - implementation, 187–188
 - implementation and start, 48–51
 - initial planning, 46–47
 - installation, 166–167
 - measuring results, 271–273
 - need for, 127
 - need statement, 125
 - objectives, 126, 127
 - organization, 40–42
 - outsourcing company, 142
 - payback time, 261
 - problems, 33
 - reasons for canceling, 47
 - requirements, 2
 - reverse calendar, 48
 - revisiting plan, 59
 - savings generated by, 261
 - schedule, 29, 38–40, 159
 - staffing requirements, 161–163
 - standards, 130, 172–173
 - start date, 159
 - tasks, 159
 - well-documented plan, 151

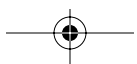

Index

- Proposal Preparation Instructions, 9
 - Proposal support group, 77
 - Proposals, 10
 - additional information, 257–258
 - alternative, 85, 224
 - badly-done, 79
 - binding, 252
 - cleanup, 32
 - costs, 241
 - cover letter, 80
 - debriefing suppliers, 93–94
 - demonstrations, 91–93
 - developing scoring methodology, 226–230
 - disqualifying, 251
 - electronic copies, 79
 - eliminating noncompliant, 222–224
 - errors or omissions in, 89, 241
 - evaluating, 30
 - evaluation criteria, 89–91
 - executive summary, 80–82, 255–256
 - format, 71–79, 243–244, 253–259
 - good information contained in, 58
 - in-depth consideration, 225
 - indexing, 253
 - instructions, 251–259
 - justifying expenses, 135
 - keeping copy of losing proposals, 58–59
 - late submission, 244
 - litigation and, 33–34
 - management section, 256–257
 - marketing material volume, 78
 - number of copies requested, 79
 - number submitted, 244
 - page size, 252
 - physical presentation, 252–259
 - preparation, 244–245
 - price evaluation, 203
 - price section, 248–249
 - price volume, 78, 79
 - printing, 252
 - rejection of, 241
 - shortlist, 225–226
 - storage, 32
 - submission of, 224, 237
 - supplier corporate information, 257
 - supplier reference information, 257
 - technical and management volume, 78
 - technical section, 256
 - transmittal letter, 80, 243–244, 254
 - type of binding, 79
 - Proposed technical environment, 138–139
 - Proprietary information, 245
 - Proprietary information notice, 67–68
 - Proprietary Notice Statement, 68, 283
 - Public disclosure, 239
 - Publishing RFP (request for proposal), 30
 - Purchase agreement, 201
 - Purchase contract, 200–203
 - Purchasing department, 44–46
- Q
- Qualifying suppliers, 27–29
 - Questionable requirements, 117
 - Questions and answers, 71–73, 237–238, 287–288
 - broadly stated, 110–111
 - deadline for final submission, 73
 - format for submitting, 72
 - incomplete answers, 112
 - instructions regarding, 72
 - not conveying mandatory requirement, 111–112
 - publishing response to, 73–74
 - responding to, 73–74
 - suppliers' point of view, 112
 - too broad or narrow, 111
- R
- Real requirements, 107
 - Recurring costs, 22–23, 195–196
 - Referees, 31
 - Reference checks and evaluation, 226
 - Reference library, 74–75, 239
 - References, 20–21, 243
 - Referrals, 239
 - Rejection of proposals, 241

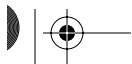

- Requests
 - for clarification, 213
 - for consulting services, 143–144
- Requirements, 7–8
 - administrative, 18
 - author of, 104–108
 - business application, 107–108
 - combining several needs, 51
 - completeness, 121–122
 - constraining, 138
 - definition of, 87–88, 101–103
 - designation of, 246
 - developing, 2–3
 - documentation, 130, 156–157
 - evaluating, 14–15, 205–206
 - exceeding basic, 217
 - existence of product or service, 101
 - fault tolerance, 155
 - functional in nature, 123
 - gold plating, 123, 129
 - hardware, 139–141
 - hidden, 105–106
 - identifying, 102
 - illustrating, 131–133
 - invalid, 130
 - management, 19–20
 - management section, 151–157
 - mandatory, 15, 87
 - meaningful, 120–121
 - measurable, 103, 119–120
 - as narrative description, 114–116
 - operational concepts, 105–107
 - optional, 15
 - overall project, 20
 - poorly written, 124, 156–157
 - providing minimal, 100
 - qualities of well written, 116–124
 - questionable, 117
 - as questions, 110–113
 - real, 107
 - reasonable understanding of products and services, 100
 - reflecting real products or solutions, 116–117
 - representing real need, 129–130
 - responding to, 19
 - response-time, 153, 155
 - shopping cart approach to writing, 117
 - software, 142–143
 - solution and, 122–123
 - specifications versus, 109–110
 - staffing, 161–163
 - statement of need, 101–102
 - as statements, 113–114
 - subjective, 118–119, 157, 228
 - suppliers recognizing, 108–109
 - system software, 141–142
 - technical, 124–133
 - technical constraints or limitations, 137
 - technical section, 101–116
 - testing, 130
 - tightly focused, 100
 - trial, 107
 - unambiguous, 117–118, 156
 - unimportant, 105–106
 - unnecessary characteristics, 123–124
 - validating, 102–103, 124
 - writing out, 29
 - written formats, 110–116
- Responding to supplier questions, 73–74
- Response-time requirements, 153, 155
- Reverse planning calendar, 48, 293–294
- Reviewing RFP (request for proposal), 15–16
- RFI (request for information), 6–9
- RFP (request for proposal), XV, 9
 - advantages of using, 12
 - amendments, 245
 - appendices, 24
 - budget, 53–54
 - comparing to budget, 29
 - conference on, 30
 - contracts and price section, 6
 - defects, 4
 - definition of, 1, 10
 - elements, 16–24

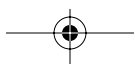

Index

- RFP (request for proposal), continued
 - evaluation criteria, 14–15, 209–211
 - high-level outline, 29
 - inadequate planning, 48–51
 - introduction, 251
 - litigation and, 33–34
 - management section, 6
 - planning phase, 13–14
 - poorly researched, 122
 - primary purpose, 32–33
 - process, 2
 - project development, 12–14
 - proposal preparation instructions, 9
 - proposals, 10
 - publishing, 30
 - reasons for writing, 10–11
 - reference library, 74–75
 - requirements, 7–8
 - reviewing, 15–16
 - schedule, 75
 - successful process, 3–4
 - technical section, 6
 - types, 6
 - uses for, 2
 - writing and releasing activities, 29–30
- RFP overview
 - company information, 62–63
 - problem statement, 63–64
- RFP team
 - IT (Information Technology), 104
 - meeting suppliers, 75–77
 - users, 104
- Robertson, James, 106
- Robertson, Suzanne, 106
- ROI (return on investment), 169, 261, 269
- Roles and responsibilities, 164
- S
- Sample product pricing, 52
- Sample Supplier Information, 65
- Schedule, 38–40
 - example, 47–48
 - procurement cycle, 47–48
 - required events, 75
 - reverse calendar, 48
 - time needed for cutover, 48–49
- Schedule creep, 34
- Scope of Work, 142
- Scoring methodology for evaluation, 226–230
- Second round of evaluations, 224–225
- Selection, 32
- Services
 - existence of, 101
 - request to buy, 12
- Shall (use of in writing requirements), 108
- Shortlist, 225–226
- Should (use of in writing requirements), 108
- Showstopper issues, 23
- Site preparation plan, 160–161
- Site visits, 31
 - evaluation, 226
 - information, 249–250
- Soft dollar savings, 262–263
- Software
 - custom development, 186
 - customizing, 183
 - demonstrations, 92
 - Help Desk, 140–141
 - license agreement, 200–203
 - license fees, 182
 - maintenance fees, 198
 - production environment, 88
 - requirements, 142–143
 - special hardware, 139
- Solution and requirements, 122–123
- Solving problems, 76
- Specifications versus requirements, 109–110
- "speeds and feeds", 137
- Staff participating in project, 162
- Standards, 172–173
- Statement of need, 101, 102
- Statement of Work, 142
- Statements, 113–114
- Statements of intent, 108

- Strawman architecture, 267
- Subcontracting, 68–69
- Subjective requirements, 228
- Subjective terms, 118–119, 157
- Submission of proposals, 237, 244
- Subrequirements, 101
- Summary-level pricing description, 193
- Supplier-provided canned presentation, 91–92
- Suppliers
 - acceptance of terms and conditions, 67
 - audit trail, 57–58
 - BAFO (best and final offer), 31
 - bona fide sales opportunity, 63
 - building relationship with, 27
 - business and market focus, 248–249
 - commenting on procurement, 8
 - comments, 174
 - company information, 247–248
 - company research and development, 249
 - compliance matrix, 289
 - confidential information, 68
 - contacts, 25, 26, 69–71
 - contracts, 29
 - corporate information, 257
 - current customer base, 248
 - debriefing losing, 32
 - definition of, 1
 - demonstrating products and services, 31, 52
 - describing project for, 26
 - developing price proposals, 22–23
 - discounts, 197–198
 - education, 51–52
 - eliminating first round, 30–31
 - evaluation forms, 58
 - executive summary, 80–82
 - experience, 247
 - explaining demonstrations to, 93
 - financially qualified, 27
 - identifying, 25–27, 28–29
 - information about, 21, 65–66
 - intent to bid, 66–67
 - international presence, 64
 - interpreting technical requirements, 99–100
 - issues and concerns, 174–175
 - limiting RFP distribution, 52
 - meeting overall project requirements, 20
 - meeting RFP team, 75–77
 - NDA (nondisclosure agreement), 66
 - nearest location, 27
 - necessary but not requested information, 21–22
 - not following pricing instructions, 198–199
 - notes taken during conference with, 58–59
 - notifying winning and losing, 93, 224
 - payment terms, 199
 - potential issues relevant to RFP, 21–22
 - pre-proposal conference, 238
 - primary, 245
 - project staffing, 162
 - qualifications, 20–21, 247
 - qualifications and references section, 20–21
 - qualifying, 27–29
 - questions from, 30, 71–73
 - recognizing requirements, 108–109
 - referees, 31
 - reference information, 65–66, 257
 - reference library, 239
 - references, 20–21, 249–250
 - referrals, 239
 - relevant issues not covered, 22
 - requesting financial information from, 121
 - requests for clarification, 213
 - requirements responding to, 19
 - resources, 27
 - restricted contact with, 71
 - RFP review by, 24–25
 - rules for responding, 18–19
 - sample product pricing, 52
 - selection of, 32, 48–51
 - selling products, systems, or services, 10
 - short list, 31
 - site visits, 31, 249–250
 - solution to need, 101
 - subcontracting, 68–69
 - submitting communications in writing, 70

Index

Suppliers, continued

- submitting pricing, 82–84
 - suggested list price, 55
 - support time, 152–153
 - technical team, 45
 - technically qualified, 27
 - testing, 167–169
 - unanswered or unacknowledged questions, 70
 - user groups, 51–52, 248
 - warranty period, 200
 - working around RFP team, 30
- Suppliers section, 21–22
- Support, 170, 188
- System level testing, 167
- System maintenance and support, 169–170
- System software, 141–142, 182

T

- Tasks, 159
- developing and writing RFP, 38
 - number of hours required to complete, 159
 - required for cutover, 48–49
 - testing time, 159
- Technical and management volume, 78
- Technical constraints or limitations, 137
- Technical environment
- current, 136–138
 - expected growth, 137
 - proposed, 138–139
 - "speeds and feeds," 137
- Technical evaluation, 216–217
- Technical requirements
- business processes and, 153, 155
 - developing, 124–133
- Technical requirements section, 19, 99–100, 256
- business system application request, 144–146
 - consulting services request, 143–144
 - current business environment, 133–136
 - current technical environment, 136–138
 - definition of requirement, 101–103
 - developing technical requirements, 124–133

- equipment list, 181
 - hardware requirements, 139–141
 - pricing section, 179
 - proposed technical environment, 138–139
 - requirements author, 104–108
 - software requirements, 142–143
 - specifications versus requirements, 109–110
 - suppliers recognizing requirements, 108–109
 - system software requirements, 141–142
 - well written requirements qualities, 116–124
 - writing requirements, 101–116
 - written formats for requirements, 110–116
- Technical solution, 242
- Technical team and suppliers, 45
- Technologies
- to accomplish business objectives, 43
 - consultants, 52
 - education, 51–52
 - relating to business problem, 64–65
 - request to buy, 12
 - too costly, 7
 - unavailable, 7
- Testing, 58, 167–168
- baseline measurements, 169
 - requirements, 130
- Third party system integrators, 150
- T&M (time and materials) contract, 202–203
- Total cost of ownership, 196
- Training, 170–171, 188–190, 257
- Transmittal letter, 80, 243–244, 254
- Trial requirements, 107

U

- Unnecessary characteristics, 123–124
- User groups, 51–52, 248
- Users, 13, 104
- developing requirements, 107
 - increasing or enhancing efficiency, 12
 - interviewing, 129
 - testing, 167
 - training, 189–190

V

Validating

prices, 194–195

requirements, 102–103

Value and evaluation, 205–207

VARs (value added resellers), 150

W

Warranty period, 200–201

Web sites including photographs and illustrations, 133

information available on, 24

preliminary information about RFP, 26

as supplier resource, 74–75

Well written requirements qualities, 116–124

Will (use of in writing requirements), 108

Working software or product demonstrations, 92

Writing requirements, 101–116

Y

Young, Ralph, 101, 186

