57	Question 7 answer: Answers A, D, and E are correct. The schema, global catalog, and configuration are replicated between domains. Therefore, answers C and D are incorrect.	Answers A, B, & E are correct. The global catalog, schema, and configuration container are shared between all domains in a single forest. The Sysvol folder is replicated only within each domain, therefore, answer C is incorrect. The domain naming context is shared only between domains that are in the same tree within a forest, but a forest can have multiple domain naming contexts, therefore answer D is incorrect.
