ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Patrice-Anne Rutledge is the bestselling author of 24 computer and business books and a business presentations specialist. She is also a successful technology journalist who has contributed to magazines, newspapers, and websites around the world. Patrice has used—and has trained others to use—PowerPoint for many years, designing presentations for meetings, seminars, trade shows, and worldwide audiences. Special Edition Using Microsoft Office PowerPoint 2007 is her fourth book on PowerPoint. She can be reached through her website (www.patricerutledge.com).

Geetesh Bajaj is an MVP (Most Valuable Professional) for Microsoft PowerPoint, and heads Indezine, a presentation design studio based out of Hyderabad, India. Geetesh believes that any PowerPoint presentation is a sum of its elements—these elements include abstract elements like concept, color, interactivity, and navigation—and also slide elements like shapes, graphics, charts, text, sound, video, and animation. Geetesh also runs the well known indezine.com and ppted.com sites.

Tom Mucciolo, founder and president of MediaNet, Inc. is an accountant turned actor turned author and an acclaimed speaker on presentation skills. He started his company in 1985, and he is a recognized expert at enhancing the key components of communication, including the message (script), the media (visual design) and the mechanics (delivery). His seminars and workshops have been rated as "exceptional" and "entertaining" and many consider Tom one of the world's top presentation specialists. He is also part of the faculty at NYU where he lectures and coaches key faculty and administrators toward becoming more effective communicators. Tom's one-to-one coaching sessions develop individual style and prepare a person for presenting in a very visual world. Tom can be reached at tom@medianet-ny.com or through his Web site at www.medianet-ny.com.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

PATRICE-ANNE RUTLEDGE

I'd like to thank everyone who contributed to the creation of Special Edition Using Microsoft Office PowerPoint 2007: Stephanie McComb, Kevin Howard, Andy Beaster, Margo Catts, and Dennis Teague for their organizational and editorial contributions and Geetesh Bajaj and Tom Mucciolo for adding great content to the book. And special thanks to my mom, Phyllis Rutledge, for both her editorial expertise and her encouragement throughout the creation of this book.

GEETESH BAJAJ

I would like to thank Stephanie McComb, Andy Beaster, and Dan Scherf at Que; Ric Bretschneider, Howard Cooperstein, and April Spence at Microsoft; and Patrice-Anne Rutledge for encouraging me to do this book with her.

TOM MUCCILO

My thanks to Patrice-Anne Rutledge for shaping the main content of this book and to Geetesh Bajaj for a fine contribution, and to the editorial team, from copy to technical to production, in being so adept at bringing this project to fruition.

A special thanks to my dear friend and co-author, Dr. Leila Jahangiri, who has collaborated with me to research, analyze, and measure the effectiveness of presentation skills in academic, medical, and business settings. Our ongoing work has helped me to clarify many of the concepts covered in this book.

On a personal side, I want to thank my mom and my late dad for always supporting everything I ever attempted, regardless of my success or failure. On the technical side, I owe a debt of gratitude to my notebook computer for accepting every keystroke throughout this entire project without a single complaint. A really important thank you goes to my old friend, the Backspace key, without which my words would look like this. Oh, and finally, I want to thank everyone on the island of Crete, mainly because no one ever thanks those people for anything, and this has to stop right now!

WE WANT TO HEAR FROM YOU!

As the reader of this book, you are our most important critic and commentator. We value your opinion and want to know what we're doing right, what we could do better, what areas you'd like to see us publish in, and any other words of wisdom you're willing to pass our way.

As an associate publisher for Que Publishing, I welcome your comments. You can email or write me directly to let me know what you did or didn't like about this book—as well as what we can do to make our books better.

Please note that I cannot help you with technical problems related to the topic of this book. We do have a User Services group, however, where I will forward specific technical questions related to the book.

When you write, please be sure to include this book's title and author as well as your name, email address, and phone number. I will carefully review your comments and share them with the author and editors who worked on the book.
